2024 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

THE STORY OF BEAR DOWN

University of Arizona Athletics' most enduring tradition is the slogan and battle cry, "Bear Down."

More than a casual piece of encouragement, the rally cry has roots over a century old, to the Roaring '20s, and pre-dates another venerated exhortation, "Win one for the Gipper," by two years.

In the fall of 1926, John Byrd "Button" Salmon was the newly installed student body president at the UA, a promising student and member of note of several of the school's honor societies. He also was a varsity quarterback, a baseball catcher and generally acclaimed popular campus figure. He embodied all-around.

In early October after the Wildcat varsity defeated the freshman squad in an annual match at the time, Salmon and several friends were returning from a visit to Phoenix, and an automobile crash north of Tucson near Florence left the young athlete critically injured.

Salmon, then 22, lost his battle and died the morning of Oct. 18. A memorial service was held on campus that week, drawing a reported thousand mourners, and a line of cars stretched miles to his burial plot.

The coach at the time, J.F. "Pop" McKale, had visited Salmon in the hospital regularly before his death, and later told the squad the young athlete's last message to his teammates was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down."

It's unclear whether McKale invoked the phrase to the team before one of several games that year, a contest in Las Cruces against New Mexico A&M (NMSU) that same week, or two weeks later before a game against New Mexico in Tucson. UA won both.

But when word spread, the UA student body drew to the phrase swiftly, and among other uses painted the slogan on the roof of the University gymnasium shortly thereafter, known since as Bear Down Gym. An airplane view of that huge-lettered phrase caused eventual long-time band director Jack K. Lee to write the song, "Bear Down, Arizona" during his application for the UA band job. The song, and Douglas Holsclaw's "Fight, Wildcats, Fight," are played throughout University of Arizona sporting events, and from the campus belltower daily.

Originally located outside the McKale Memorial Center upon its dedication in 1986, the bronze bust memorial to John "Button" Salmon was relocated in 2013 to more visible quarters near the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. The new location placed the bust closer to the stadium, representative of Salmon's participation in football. The bust faces southeast so that it may look across the former Kindall-Sancet baseball stadium and on to the current home of Arizona baseball, Hi Corbett Field, as well as Salmon's hometown of Bisbee.

As part of a new tradition established with the 2013 season, Arizona football players pass and touch the bust as a show of tribute as they complete the "Wildcat Walk" and enter the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility before every home game. The "Bear Down" rally cry also appears inside Arizona Stadium. Arizona's FieldTurf playing surface features "Bear Down" along the sidelines.

In spring of 2008, a highway memorial honoring the Bear Down tradition was installed along State Route 79 near the site of the tragic crash at Florence.

With or without the pieces of bronze and marble, Bear Down as a phrase and song has been inexorably a part of UA athletics, woven into its fabric year after year, since October 1926. Since 2000, UA Athletics has awarded John Button Salmon Awards to 23 former coaches or administrators for exemplary leadership and service to the University, in honor of the tradition's namesake.

"Button" Salmon died generations ago but his message still echoes across every UA athletic venue, in every corner and through every building on campus, and in the thoughts of tens of thousands of Wildcat supporters past, present and future.

ARIZONA FOOTBALL MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Media Information

Jeff Bowe and Brett Gleason of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Arizona Football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Jeff Bowe via email at jeffb1@arizona.edu or (520) 528-2101.

Credentials

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All credential requests may be submitted at ArizonaWildcats.com/FBCredentials.

Media Will Call is located at Gate 8 Ticket Windows (Northwest entrance to Arizona Stadium).

Press Box

Visit ArizonaWildcats.com/FBpressbox to view all Media Guides, Game Notes, Stats Archive, Future Non-Conference Schedules, Future Big 12 Opponents, and request interviews with student-athletes, staff, and coaches through the contact information provided.

Parking

Parking is distributed on a space-available basis to credentialed members of the media. Parking passes will be digitally distributed in 2024. Any members of the media needing additional accommodations should make arrangements prior to game day. Contact Brett Gleason in the Arizona Athletics Communications department (brettgleason@arizona.edu).

For the 2024 season, all media parking is in the 6th Street Parking Garage. The 6th Street Parking Garage is located just a few blocks west of Arizona Stadium. Elevators servicing the Arizona Stadium Press Box on the west side of the stadium are conveniently located within walking distance from the media parking garage (five minutes or fewer to walk).

Brent Brennan

First Season at Arizona
8th season as a Head Coach

Career Record: 34-48 (25-30)

Brent Brennan became the Head Coach of Arizona Football in January of 2024. Brennan enters his first season following seven seasons leading the San José State University football program where he steered the Spartans to three bowl game appearances and earned 2020 Mountain West Coach of the Year.

Brennan, 51, is an experienced leader in college football who enjoyed two stints coaching under legendary Arizona head coach Dick Tomey, the winningest coach in program history. The San José native first learned under Tomey with the Wildcats as a graduate assistant in 2000, and again from 2005-09 at SJSU as an assistant coach. The ties between Brennan and the University of Arizona run deep, with Brent's brother Bradley playing five years as a wide out in Tucson under Tomey, and Brent's wife Courtney being an alumna of the University.

Among a multitude of accomplishments at San José State, Brennan became the first head coach in SJSU history to lead the Spartans to three bowl games in a four-year span. He also steered SJSU to back-to-back winning seasons in 2022 and 2023, marking the first time it had been accomplished by the Spartans since the 1991-92 campaigns.

Throughout Brennan's lengthy and accomplished career, he helped develop five All-Americans and 19 Professional Football players, including six who enjoyed NFL careers of five-plus seasons.

The 2023 season at San José State saw Brennan's Spartans charge down the final stretch of the season, winning six consecutive conference games to close out the regular season and earn a bowl berth. During that six-game stretch Brennan's offense averaged over 38 points per game while the defense held opponents to a meager 17.8 points per game. SJSU's offensive efforts were fueled by ball security, turning the ball over just 10 times, the best mark in the Mountain West and the ninth best in the nation. The trend was continued from the 2022 campaign in which the Spartans led the country with only six turnovers on offense and a +12 turnover margin that led the MWC.

Across time as a coach and player, Brennan has been part of nine teams that reached bowl games including in each of the last two years at San José State. The highlight of his SJSU tenure was a remarkable 7-1 campaign in 2020 that secured the Spartans their first Mountain West Conference championship and the school's first outright conference championship since topping the Big West in 1990.

Since that impressive 2020 season under Brennan's leadership, the Spartans have posted a 20-10 record against Mountain West competition and went 26-19 overall.

Brennan twice had the opportunity to learn from Dick Tomey, first as a graduate assistant at Arizona in 2000 and again as an assistant coach at San José State from 2005-09. His crossover with Tomey at SJSU included the Spartans impressive 9-4 campaign in 2006 that concluded with a victory over the University of New Mexico in the New Mexico Bowl. That 2006 season orchestrated by Tomey and Brennan still stands as one of just 14 nine-plus win seasons in SJSU history.

A former wide receiver during his playing days, Brennan has long been regarded as an exceptional offensive mind. Players recruited and coached by Brennan litter the San José State receiving record books, while his time at Oregon State from 2001-15 included the mentorship of numerous standouts highlighted by 2013 Biletnikoff

Prior to his second stint in San José, Brennan logged six seasons coaching wide receivers at Oregon State where he and the offensive staff fielded some of the most dangerous offenses in the country. The Beavers passing attack was explosive and relentless, ranking top 20 nationally in 2011 (19th), 2012 (20th), and 2013 (3rd).

Brennan also logged time with Cal Poly (2001-04) as an assistant coach. He opened his coaching career with Woodside High School in California before securing a trio of one-year graduate assistant positions at Hawai'i (1998), Washington (1999), and Arizona (2000).

His playing career spanned five seasons at UCLA as a wide receiver, where he lettered as part of the Bruins 1993 Rose Bowl team. Brennan earned a degree in history from UCLA in 1996.

Brennan and his wife Courtney are the proud parents to two daughters, Blake and Casey, and one son, Scott.

ALONZO CARTER

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 43rd

Carter joined the Arizona Football program as Assistant Head Coach and Running Backs Coach in January of 2024. Carter begins his tenure with the Wildcats following seven seasons with San Jose State.

Carter joined the Spartans football coaching staff in January 2017, as the running backs coach and added the duties of assistant head coach in 2021. Under Carter's leadership, running back Kaiiree Robinson finished second in the Mountain West with a career-high 1,194 rushing yards and led the conference with a career-high 18 rushing touchdowns.

In 2022, Carter helped Robinson rush for a then career-high in yards (752) and touchdowns (10) helping the tailback gain a single-game career best 148 yards on 24 carries and a touchdown against Hawai'i (11/26/22).

The 2020 season was a banner year for the running back group led by Coach Carter helping the Spartans to a Mountain West Championship and No. 24 in the final AP Poll. Tailbacks averaged 4.5 yards per rush, its best average for SJSU in five years, and became one of the first two teams in NCAA Football Bow Subdivision (FBS) history to complete a season without losing a fumble by a ball handler on offense, defense, and special teams.

During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic and up to the start of the delayed season, Carter became a national figure through his West Coast Zoom clinics - weekly sessions involving hundreds of football coaches. The concept originated from the desire to assist minority coaches with upward mobility in the coaching profession, the #BlackLivesMatter movement, and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on sports and society. Rooted in listening, learning and networking, the then Spartan assistant coach relied on his professional connections and hosted engaging ZOOM calls lasting up to seven hours, either once or twice a week.

For his use of the Zoom technology platform, he received a 2020 Zoomtopia award for innovation - emphasis on diversity: bridging the divide.

In August 2020, he was named to the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches (NCMFC) executive committee. The organization's goal is to identify and groom coaches of color and create a list of coaching candidates for upward mobility. The NCMFC recognized his organizational commitment through his recruitment of more than 100 new members, providing mentoring, and mock interview sessions with its MVP Advocate Award for 2020. Since August 2020, he assisted 26 NCMFC members that advanced to coaching positions of greater responsibility or visibility.

The Wildcat assistant has 18 years of head coaching experience. His teams compiled a 129-69-3 win-loss record, won 11 league championships, three California Interscholastic Federation (C.I.F.) Oakland Section titles, and six post-season bowl games. He was named league or conference coach of the year in seven of those seasons.

At Cal State Hayward, he and a group of friends answered an audition call, became backup dancers and rap artists, and toured extensively with iconic hip-hop musician MC Hammer. Carter was awarded a multi-platinum record signifying at least 10 million albums sold for "Please Hammer Don't Hurt Em."

Carter was inducted into the African American Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He holds coaching certifications from the American Football Coaches Association, the California Interscholastic Federation and the California Community College Athletic Association. Carter was selected to participate in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship program in 2017 with the San Francisco 49ers.

Named Head coach at Contra Costa College (2010-16). Contra Costa College posted a 47-27 win-loss mark, captured four conference championships and won two bowl games under Carter.

Hired as Head Coach at Berkeley High in 2007 after winning four league championships and three Oakland Section titles in eight seasons.

Carter's coaching career began as McClymonds High's track and field coach in February 1993. In his three years as the track and field head coach, McClymonds produced eight league and section champions. He also had responsibilities as a varsity assistant football coach.

The 2016 California State University East Bay graduate majored in African American Studies. When the school was known as Cal State Hayward, he was a member of the Pioneers' football and track and field teams.

DUANE AKINA

Defensive Coordinator

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 45th

Duane Akina returned to the Arizona Football program in 2023 and was promoted to Defensive Coordinator by new Head Coach Brent Brennan in January of 2024. Akina has over 43 years of coaching experience in college and professional football.

Akina coached at the UA during the celebrated "Desert Swarm" era under Dick Tomey from 1987-2000; Akina also coached Arizona's defensive backs in 2011 under Mike Stoops and interim head coach Tim Kish.

Akina enters his second season in his return to the Wildcats as Defensive Coordinator after serving as a Senior Defensive Assistant with the Secondary last year. During the 2023 season, Arizona improved across the board defensively, rising from 124th in total defense in 2022 to 48th in 2023. Arizona finished with a 0.38 turnover margin last season, a noted improvement over the -0.42 turnover margin in 2022.

With the help of Akina, the Wildcats finished 29th nationally in points allowed per game in 2023, surrendering 21.1 points per game compared to 125th in 2022 (36.5 points allowed per game). All of these improvements helped the Wildcats win 10 games for the fourth time in program history and defeat No. 12 Oklahoma 38-24 in the Valero Alamo Bowl in 2023.

As the secondary coach at Arizona, Akina helped guide the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" defensive attack, one of the nation's most aggressive and productive groups. His prize pupils were Darryll Lewis, the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award winner, and Chris McAlister, a finalist for the Thorpe Award and winner of the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year award in 1998. Lewis was a Pro Bowler for the San Diego Chargers and played 10 seasons in the NFL. McAlister, meanwhile, earned a spot in the 2004 Pro Bowl and was a member of the 2000 Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens.

During his time as offensive coordinator, Akina guided some of the Wildcats' most productive offenses. In 1994, he helped develop the UA offense into a unit that recorded more than 200 yards passing per game. Arizona's offense registered 2,211 passing yards and 1,776 rushing yards that season, which marked the first time in a decade that the team had registered more yards passing than rushing. In 1995, Akina directed the Wildcats' passing attack to 204.3 yards per game, which at the time, ranked fifth on the school's all-time list.

Before Akina's 14-year career at Arizona, he spent five seasons as a defensive assistant under legendary Head Coach Dick Tomey at Hawaii, followed by one season with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders.

Akina has coached three Thorpe Award winners, six Thorpe finalists and 41 defensive backs who have played in the NFL -- including seven Pro Bowlers, nine Super Bowl participants and 12 All-Americans. Akina has coached in 26 bowl games.

In his first stint at Arizona, Akina held multiple roles, including defensive backs coach, associate head coach, defensive coordinator, and offensive coordinator. Following the 2000 season, Akina had a similar role under Mack Brown at Texas. Most recently, Akina worked for David Shaw as Stanford's defensive backs coach from 2014 to this past season.

DINO BABERS

Offensive Coordinator

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 41st season

Dino Babers was hired as Offensive Coordinator by Head Coach Brent Brennan in Feb. of 2024 and enters his first season with the Wildcats. Babers joins the staff after eight seasons as head coach at Syracuse.

Babers led six teams to bowl eligibility with three double-digit winning seasons. He guided three teams to double-digit winning seasons with 12 wins at Eastern Illinois (2013), 10 wins at Bowling Green (2015), and 10 wins at Syracuse (2018). Babers concluded his 40th season as a collegiate coach by seeing Syracuse reach back-to-back bowl games for the first time in a decade.

From 1995-2000, Babers served the Arizona Wildcats under legendary Head Coach Dick Tomey as wide receivers coach (1995-96), running backs coach (1997), and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach from 1998-00. Babers has coached or recruited more than 70 NFL players, including 33 draft picks, four All-Pros (Lance Briggs, Matthew Slater, Josh Gordon, Az-Zahir Hakim) and three Pro Bowlers (Briggs, Slater, Gordon).

Fifteen of his protégés have been picked in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft, including six in the first two rounds. Arizona running back Trung Canidate was the first-round choice of the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Along with Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois), wide receivers Brian Alford (Purdue), Will Blackwell (San Diego State), Dennis Northcutt (Arizona) and Josh Gordon (Baylor) were selected in the second round.

Over his impressive coaching career, Babers has coached Arizona players that made it to the NFL including Trung Canidate (St. Louis, Washington), Lance Briggs (Chicago), Mike Lucky (Dallas), Brandon Manumaleuna (St. Louis, San Diego, Chicago), Dennis Northcutt (Cleveland, Jacksonville, Detroit), Andrae Thurman (New York Giants, Houston, Pittsburgh, Green Bay, Tennessee), and Bobby Wade (Chicago, Tennessee, Minnesota, Kansas City, Washington).

He ended his time at Syracuse with a 78-70 (.527) career record and led Syracuse into the top-25 in three of his final six seasons with the program. Babers' teams also improved on the defensive side of the field in his tenure. The team finished in the top-25 nationally in total defense in two of his final three seasons at the helm.

Babers led teams to 18 postseason appearances including 16 bowl games from 1985 to 2023. He planted the seeds of Syracuse's revival during his first season in 2016. The Orange knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in four years, topping ACC Coastal champion Virginia Tech at home, 31-17. Additionally, he commanded an offense that set or tied more than 40 school records, including new season standards for completions (332) and passing yards (3,855).

Babers took over the Bowling Green program in 2014 and led the Falcons to an 18-9 record in his two years there, including victories over three Big Ten teams (Indiana - 2014; Maryland, Purdue - 2015). The Falcons went 8-6 in Babers' first season and captured the MAC East Division championship with a 5-3 league mark. Bowling Green lost the MAC title game to Northern Illinois but rebounded for a 33-28 win versus South Alabama in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, BGSU's first bowl victory since 2004.

He excelled in his first head coaching position, leading Eastern Illinois to a 19-7 record in two seasons, including a 14-1 mark against Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) foes. His 2012 and 2013 Panther teams won the conference championship and earned FCS playoff berths. For his work, Babers was named the OVC Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year after both seasons. The cornerstone of Babers' Eastern Illinois teams was quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, who won the Walter Payton Award (the FCS equivalent of the Heisman Trophy) after throwing for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns as a senior in 2013.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii with a bachelor's degree in education, Babers started at three different positions (outside linebacker, strong safety, running back) for the Warriors during his career, while earning Western Athletic Conference All-Academic honors. As a senior, he served as Hawaii's special teams captain and was the squad's leading rusher.

Babers tried out for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League before an injury in training camp ended his playing career.

Babers, who received his master's degree in education administration and supervision from Arizona State in 1987, and his wife, Susan, have four daughters – Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin and Paris.

JOSH OGLESBY

Offensive Line Coach/Run Game Coordinator

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 11th season

Oglesby joined the Arizona Football program as offensive line coach and run game coordinator in January of 2024. Oglesby spent four seasons in the same position with San Jose State prior to joining the Wildcats.

Oglesby is the second member of coach Brennan's inaugural staff at Arizona that participated in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship program, first with the Oakland Raiders in 2016 and again with the Indianapolis Colts in 2019.

The offensive line at San Jose State excelled under Oglesby's leadership. Behind his offensive line, the 2023 Spartans led the Mountain West Conference with an average of 5.58 yards per rushing attempt. In 2022, Oglesby's offensive line protected SJSU quarterback Chevan Cordeiro en route to a MWC-leading 3,251 passing yards and 23 touchdowns.

During his first season with San Jose State, Oglesby's offensive line unit ranked among the best in the nation, tying for eighth in Division I with just 1.00 sacks allowed per game. Their rushing marks in the COVID-shortened 2020 season was the program's best in five years, averaging 4.5 yards per attempt and 132.5 yards per game. Left tackle Jack Snyder, a key member of that 2020 unit, became the first Spartan lineman in eight years to earn All-Mountain West First Team honors; he went on to sign with the Los Angeles Rams in 2022.

As a player, Oglesby earned 2011 All-Big Ten First Team honors at Wisconsin and helped the Badgers advance to both the 2010 and 2011 Rose Bowls.

Prior to his time in San Jose State, Oglesby logged time with the NFL's Seattle Sea Dragons, the AAF's San Antonio Commanders, UTEP, Oregon State, and Wisconsin.

Oglesby is a 2011 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, where he majored in Sociology.

MATT ADKINS

Tight Ends Coach/Pass Game Coordinator
Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 13th season

Third generation college coach, Matt Adkins, has joined the Arizona Football program as the Wildcats tight ends coach and passing game coordinator, head coach Brent Brennan announced today. Adkins comes to Tucson after serving in the same role at San Jose State under Brennan for five years.

Adkins joined San Jose State in 2017 as a graduate assistant that worked with the offensive coaching staff and tight ends and maintained that role through the 2019 season. He was then promoted to full-time assistant as the program's tight ends coach, a position he kept through the 2023 campaign.

San Jose State's tight ends thrived under Adkins' guidance; over the past two seasons the Spartans tight ends have combined to haul in ten touchdowns, while 2022 standout Dominick Mazotti earned an All-Mountain West Honorable Mention selection.

His 2020 tight end class included Derrick Deese Jr., a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award who earned a free agent contract from the Detroit Lions after the 2021 season.

While working as a graduate assistant in 2018 Adkins helped develop All-Mountain West tight end Josh Oliver, who led the Spartans with 56 receptions for 709 yards and four touchdowns. Oliver went on to become the third-round selection of the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2019 NFL Draft and has since enjoyed a four-year NFL career.

Adkins is a native of Ellensburg, Washington and a 2012 graduate of Southern Oregon University. His collegiate playing career included time at quarterback for Southern Oregon and Shasta College.

He is a third-generation football coach, following his father, Doug, who was the head coach at Humboldt State from 2000-07 and his grandfather, Tom Perry, who is the winningest head coach in Central Washington University history with 95 career victories and a member of the Washington State Football Coaches Hall of Fame.

DANNY GONZALES

Special Teams Coordinator/Linebackers Coach
Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 23rd season

Gonzales enters his first season as Special Teams Coordinator and Linebackers Coach in 2024. He joins the Wildcats after serving the last four seasons as head coach of New Mexico.

Gonzales brings 151-career wins as a coach to the Wildcats since entering the coaching world as a graduate assistant with New Mexico in 1999. He spent the last four seasons as head coach at the University of New Mexico and has appeared in a bowl game in 14 of the last 17 seasons.

He joined his mentor and former coach Rocky Long as Lobo football players returning to coach at their alma mater.

In 2022 under Gonzales, New Mexico lowered its total defense yards per game allowed, and the program cut 125.5 yards per game off the total prior to Gonzales arrival. The season prior UNM had a top-30 passing defense, with the Lobos allowing just 202.8 yards per game through the air, finishing No. 30 in the nation after inheriting one of the worst pass defensive teams in the nation in 2019.

Gonzales helped New Mexico finish in the top 50 in total defense in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2007-08. The Lobo defense finished in the top 35 in third down defense and in the top 25 in defensive first downs allowed during the 2022 season.

Safety A.J. Haulcy earned Freshman All-American giving the Lobos their first All-American since 2014. New Mexico had eight players selected All-Mountain West, tying for the most in the past 10 seasons, and three Second-Team All-Mountain West selections, the second most in the last 10 years.

Gonzales has a pair of degrees from The University of New Mexico, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration and general management in 1998 and a master's degree in physical education and recreation in 2002. Danny and his wife Sandra have four children: Cole, Jake, Chloe and Abby.

JOE SEUMALO

Defensive Line Coach

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 30th season

Seumalo enters his first season at Arizona as Defensive Line Coach under Head Coach Brent Brennan.

Seumalo joins the Wildcats coaching staff after serving as defensive line coach with the San Jose State Spartans since 2017. It was his second stint with the Spartans after serving as an assistant in 2005. He molded current NFL player Viliami Fehoko into Mountain West Defensive Player of the year. Becoming the third Spartan coached by Seumalo to earn the award.

Fehoko was also named to the Sporting News All-America Second Team, the PFF All-America Second Team, and the Phil Steele All-America Fourth Team. Fehoko and Cade Hall were both named to the Mountain West First-Team in 2022.

JSU also led the Mountain West in sacks with 39 while playing in a conference low 12 games and finished fifth in the nation averaging 3.27 sacks per game in 2022.

Seumalo has 22 seasons of NCAA Division I experience coaching defensive linemen. Ten of his players went on to play professional football. Chris Gocong, who played for Seumalo at Cal Poly, finished second in the 2004 Buck Buchanan Award voting for the top defensive player in the NCAA Division I-AA classification, now known as the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Oregon State's Stephen Paea was the 2010 Pac-12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

A defensive lineman at the University of Hawaii from 1985 through 1988, Seumalo was a second-team All-Western Athletic Conference his senior season. He went on to play in the Canadian Football League for Calgary Stampeders and Ottawa Roughriders in 1989 and the Edmonton Eskimos in 1994. Seumalo concluded his pro playing career with the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 1995.

Seumalo and his wife Karen have four sons, Andrew, Isaac, Noah, and Levi; a daughter Jessi. Andrew is in his fifth season as defensive line coach at Lafayette College. Isaac is in his seventh NFL season as an offensive guard with the Philadelphia Eagles. Jessi is the player personnel coordinator at the San Francisco 49ers, and Noah is a linebacker at Oregon State University.

BOBBY WADE

Wide Receivers Coach

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 6th season

Legendary Arizona Football alumni Bobby Wade, the program's career leader in receiving yards, is returning to the program to serve as the Wildcats wide receivers coach in Jan. of 2024.

Wade, who played wide receiver for the Wildcats from 1999-2002, hauled in 230 receptions for 3,351 yards and 23 touchdowns during his collegiate career, all three marks which rank within the top five in program history. The 2002 All-American and two-time All-Pac-12 First Team honoree was inducted into the Arizona Football Ring of Honor in 2015.

Following his collegiate career, Wade was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fifth round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He went on to enjoy a seven-year, 102-game NFL career that included 244 receptions for 2,858 yards and nine touchdowns. Wade spent time on the rosters of the Bears, Tennessee Titans, Minnesota Vikings, and Kansas City Chiefs.

Before returning to Tucson, Wade spent the previous five years on staff at Arizona State, serving in multiple roles. He began his tenure in Tempe as a graduate assistant from 2019-20, moved into an offensive analyst role in 2021, and earned a promotion to full-time receivers coach for the 2021 and 2022 seasons. During the 2023 season he took over as the Sun Devils senior offensive analyst.

Wade's coaching career also includes participation in the NFL's Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship internship program with the Miami Dolphins.

His time at ASU was preceded by a two-plus year stint at Cesar Chavez High School in Phoenix, where he coached the team's wide receivers. Wade's coaching experience also includes four-plus years as the head coach and co-president of Arizona Saints Sports, a prominent youth football organization.

Cornerbacks Coach

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 12th season

Viney joins the Wildcats as Cornerbacks Coach after serving the last two seasons with San Jose State in the same role.

In 2023, the Spartans finished second in the Mountain West in total defense, first in pass defense including 12 interceptions which tied for second in the conference. SJSU allowed a conference-low 183.00 yards through the air.

In 2022, his defensive backs combined for nine interceptions and helped the Spartans achieve a Mountain West best +12 turnover margin in the regular season.

Viney had various roles with Oklahoma football over two tenures. The most recent stint was from 2018 through 2021 when he served in recruiting and team defense analyst roles. For the 2021 season, he was the director of player development and scouting analyst.

The Fresno, Calif., native also spent 2013 through 2016 at Oklahoma as a graduate assistant working with cornerbacks his first three seasons and was the Sooners' 2016 special teams analyst.

In his eight seasons with Oklahoma football, the Sooners won five Big 12 Conference championships and participated in the 2018 and 2019 College Football Playoffs, and the 2013 Bowl Championship Series (BCS).

In between his two tenures at Oklahoma, Viney was at the University of Nevada in 2017 coaching cornerbacks.

He earned letter awards for the 2008, 2009, and 2010 Bruin teams and was named its scout team player of the year as a freshman. Viney completed his college career at New Mexico State in 2011. He then played one season of Arena Football for the 2012 San Jose SaberCats.

Viney graduated from UCLA (2010) and was a history major. He and his wife Whitney have two daughters Milan and Brooklyn. Viney was born on July 20, 1989, in Fresno, Calif.

BRETT ARCE

Stars Coach

Year at Arizona: 4th

Years in Coaching: 12th season

Arce was promoted to the role of Stars Coach in Jan. 2024. Arce has spent the last three years on the Wildcats staff working with the program's safeties and nickel backs.

Since 2021, Arce has helped provide academic, athletic, and interpersonal direction for the Arizona safeties room. Additionally, he has assisted with meeting room agendas, on-field drills, practice plan, and game plan development, along with numerous other responsibilities.

Arce helped Arizona make one of the greatest leaps in defensive rankings in the nation from 2022 to 2023, with Arizona improving from 124th in the nation in total defense in 2022 (467.7 yards per game) all the way to 48th last season (357.9 yards per game), an improvement of over 100 yards per game. Over that same span the Wildcats secondary jumped from four interceptions to nine and dropped their passing efficiency defense from 153.02 to 127.31, the latter of which represented a vault of 79 spots in the national rankings.

The Wildcats defensive improvements, particularly in the secondary, were a crucial piece of the team's Alamo Bowl berth and victory over Oklahoma.

Before his time at Arizona, Arce spent the 2018-20 seasons in a defensive quality control role with USC, assisting with the Trojans safeties and linebackers. He was promoted into the role following two-plus years in a graduate assistant role with USC. Arce's time with the Trojans included a Rose Bowl win over Penn State following the 2016 season and a Pac-12 Championship and Cotton Bowl berth in 2017.

Across all of his coaching stops, Arce has helped guide eight NFL Draft selections, including first round pick cornerback Adoree Jackson, second round pick outside linebacker Drake Jackson, and All-American and First Team All-Pro selection safety Talanoa Hufunga.

Arce's coaching career has also included stops at his alma mater, Stony Brook, where he served in multiple roles, and West Hills Community College.

He is a two-time graduate from Stony Brook University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 2011 and a master's in liberal arts in 2012. During his early coaching years, Arce also logged time as a part-time history professor at West Hills Community College.

CHUCK CECIL

Senior Defensive Assistant, Offense, Football

Year at Arizona: 7th

Years in Coaching: 23rd

Former National Football League (NFL) defensive coordinator, Pro Bowl Safety, College Football Hall of Famer and Wildcat standout Chuck Cecil was named Senior Defensive Assistant, Offense in 2024 by new head coach Brent Brennan after serving as Defensive Backs Coach in December from 2020-23 following four seasons as a Senior Defensive Analyst and interim Defensive Coordinator. He enters his seventh season with the Wildcats and first season in his new role in 2024.

Cecil is one of the only coaches in the NFL to have served as a senior defensive assistant, offense. He is a 20-year NFL and collegiate football coaching veteran, who spent the past three years coaching safeties at Arizona. The unit has improved dramatically from 2021 to 2023 with four safeties recording career high grades from PFF last season.

Over that period, Cecil's safeties have topped previous personal highs in forced fumbles, solo tackles, and sacks in addition to improving their overall defense against the run. In 2023, Cecil saw two starters record career highs in tackles and interceptions while the defense recorded its lowest points per game allowed since 2013. Under Cecil's tutelage, both of Arizona's starting safeties finished in the top-5 in total tackles on the team.

In 2022, the Wildcats forced 16 turnovers (4 INT, 12 fumbles) marking an improvement of 10 turnovers from 2021 helping Arizona to a win improvement of four games. It marked the third largest win improvement in program history jumping from 1-11 in 2021 to 5-7 in 2022. Arizona landed former five-star linebacker Justin Flowe (Oregon) during the early signing period for the 2023 recruiting class. Cecil helped the Wildcats secure 16 defensive signees on early signing day to add depth and talent to the defense.

During the 2021 season, Cecil's defensive backs held opposing offenses to just 190 yards passing per game, a mark that ranked second in the Pac-12 and 15th nationally. It marked the first time since 2005 that the Wildcats finished second or better in the conference in pass defense. Arizona held their opponents to fewer than 100 yards passing four times during the 2021 campaign.

Cecil also played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

Prior to joining the Wildcats, Cecil served as the senior defensive coach for the Los Angeles Rams (2015-2017). The Rams defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL during the 2016 season. In 2012, Cecil shared in the Rams defensive coordinator responsibilities and served as the defensive backs coach. The defense improved from 26th (2011) to 14th (2012) while the secondary ranked second for the fewest passing touchdowns in the league in 2014.

In the 2010 and 2009 seasons, Cecil was the defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. As the architect of a solid run and pressure-oriented defense, the defense finished the 2009 season ranked 11th overall in the NFL. Tennessee ranked eighth in the league in interceptions (20) and second in interceptions returned for touchdown (4). During his final three years, the Titans defense ranked third in the NFL in interceptions (62) behind only Green Bay and Baltimore.

A veteran secondary coach, Cecil taught and developed a defensive back core that grew into one of the finest secondary units in the league. During the 2008 season as the defensive back coach, three of the four players were invited to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. It was the first time in NFL history that three players from the same secondary represented the team in the Pro Bowl. Overall, they snared 19 interceptions, which ranked second in the NFL. Prior, Cecil coached safeties and nickel backs.

A Pro Bowl Safety, Cecil played seven years in the NFL. Selected by the Green Bay Packers in 1988, Cecil was known as a ferocious player and was featured on the 1993 cover of Sports Illustrated with the title "Is Chuck Cecil Too Vicious for the NFL?" Cecil played seven years in the NFL. The Green Bay Packers (1988-92), Phoenix Cardinals (1993), and Houston Oilers (1995) during which he notched 461 tackles, 16 interceptions, and one touchdown.

One of the most accomplished and decorated players in Arizona Football history, Cecil played for the Wildcats from 1984-87 under head coaches Larry Smith and Dick Tomey. During his collegiate career in Tucson, Cecil tallied 392 total tackles, 21 interceptions, and 38 passes defended. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2009. His 106-yard interception return in the 1986 Territorial Cup still stands as the longest interception return in program history and he remains in the program's top 10 career leaderboards in tackles, interceptions, and pass breakups.

Cecil is married to Carrie Gerlach Cecil, a native Arizonan who has established a successful communications career creating literary, television, film, online, business and live content. The couple met in their time at UA and have one daughter, Charli (15) as well as two dogs. They are heavily involved in community service, including hosting the Cecil Family Golden Hour Golf Classic for the UMC Level One Trauma Center in Tucson, Arizona and raise monies for Eve's Angels, and Ordinary Hero, among other organizations.

CULLEN CARROLL

Director of Football Strength and Conditioning

Year at Arizona: 1st

Carroll enters his first season working for Coach Brent Brennan as the Director, Football Strength and Conditioning at the University of Arizona in 2024.

In his role, Carroll oversees all aspects of the comprehensive student-athlete development efforts for the Wildcats football program, with a philosophy centered around injury prevention, athletic performance enhancement and mental discipline training.

Prior to his start in Tucson, Carroll spent the 2023 season with Coach Brennan at San Jose State University as the Head of Football Athletic Performance. During his time as Director at SJSU, Carroll was directly responsible for the comprehensive student athlete development of the Spartan football program.

In addition, Carroll was responsible for spearheading the implementation of Sport Science Initiatives with the football program that worked in conjunction with his return to performance protocols and overall developmental philosophy. This approach led to dramatic impacts on player health and availability, contributing to a late season 6-game winning streak, culminating in a share of the MWC regular season title, and an appearance in the 2023 Easy Post Hawai'i Bowl.

Prior to his arrival to SJSU, Carroll served as the Director of Football Sports Performance at Stanford University for four seasons (2019 – 2022) and was a member of Coach David Shaw's Football staff with the Cardinal for nine seasons overall, starting in 2014.

During his time as Director of Football Sports Performance at Stanford, Carroll was directly responsible for the comprehensive student athlete development of the Cardinal football program. In the past four NFL Drafts, Carroll saw 13 of his athletes selected by NFL organizations. Overall, Carroll has seen 35 of his athletes selected in the NFL draft, including 4 in the first round.

Prior to being named Director in 2019, Carroll served for two seasons as the Assistant Director of Football Sports Performance for (2017 – 2019) under the guidance of his mentor, Shannon Turley. During that span the program won the Pac-12 North, earned a berth in the Pac-12 title game, along with an Alamo Bowl appearance in 2017 and a Sun Bowl Championship in 2018.

As an Assistant Football Sports Performance Coach at Stanford from 2014-2016, Carroll contributed to the Cardinal winning a Foster Farms Bowl Championship in 2014, a Pac-12 Conference Championship in 2015, a Rose Bowl Game Championship in 2016 and the Sun Bowl Championship in 2017.

Carroll began his time with the Cardinal as an intern in 2014 and was quickly elevated to an assistant football sports performance coach during the 2014 Off-season.

Carroll also previously served as the Sports Performance Coach for both the Stanford men's swimming and men's gymnastics programs, while assisting with the wrestling program. The men's swimming program earned back-to-back Pac-12 titles under Carroll's direction in 2016 and 2017.

Before coming to Stanford, Carroll assisted with all aspects of football sports performance at Wake Forest University in 2013 as an intern.

A native of Petaluma Calif., Carroll holds a master's degree in Kinesiology from San José State University, and a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Willamette University, where he was an All-Northwest Conference linebacker. Carroll began his collegiate coaching career as a student assistant serving as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Willamette football program.

He is certified SCCC through the CSCCa, CSCS through the NSCA, and is CPR/AED/First Aid certified through the American Heart Association.

He and his wife, Kylie Carroll (Mulligan), live in Tucson with their son, Joseph.

LYLE MOEVAO

Quarterbacks Coach

Year at Arizona: 1st

Moevao joins the Arizona Football coaching staff as Quarterbacks Coach in Jan of 2024.

Moevao (pronounced Moy-vow) most recently served as an offensive analyst under Coach Brennan at San Jose State University. The Spartans led the Mountain West in passing offense during the 2023 season, averaging 272.5 yards per game with 23 touchdowns through the air and 3,270 total yards passing.

SJSU's quarterback Chevan Cordeiro was named to the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award Watch List prior to the 2023 season. Cordeiro was also named 2023 All-Mountain West First Team along with tailback Kairee Robinson.

The Spartans prolific offense finished third in the Mountain West in total touchdowns scored with 55, while averaging 31.9 points per game.

Moevao joined SJSU in 2021 after serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Northern Colorado during the 2020 season. Prior to his time at UNC, Moevao was the running backs coach for the San Antonio Commanders of the Alliance of American Football (AAF). He was the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Lewis and Clark College for the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

The 2010 Oregon State graduate majored in sociology and was a quarterback on the Beavers football team during the 2006 through 2009 seasons. As a starting quarterback, Oregon State posted a 14-4 win-loss record and won the 2007 Emerald Bowl in San Francisco, California and the 2008 Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Moevao went on to play two seasons of professional football in France and Japan.

Kenneally earned his Bachelor of Arts in General Studies from the University of Arizona in May of 2022 and has since worked for the Kansas City Chiefs as an Equipment Volunteer for Super Bowl LVII and a graduate assistant at ASU while earning his Masters of Science in Organizational Leadership in December 2023.

During his time with the Chiefs, Kenneally assisted with the equipment needs of an NFL franchise during Super Bowl week. Coordinated daily tasks and assisted in field set up and break down during practice week leading up to the Super Bowl.

Prior to earning his undergrad degree, he served as head student manager and a student manager with the football program at the University of Arizona from August 2018 to May 2022. Kenneally supervised and led groups of 20-plus student workers to meet deadlines. He assisted with inventory and proper equipment management for all coaches and student-athletes. Kenneally mentored current and incoming student managers and helped shape the future of Arizona equipment staff.

BEN THIENES

Chief of Staff

Year at Arizona: 1st

Ben Thienes was hired as Chief of Staff for the Arizona Football program in January of 2024. Thienes is added to the staff after seven seasons as Senior Associate Athletics Director of Football and Facilities at San Jose State University.

Thienes joins the Wildcats following seven seasons at San Jose State University. He earned a promotion to Assistant Athletics Director of Football Operations in May of 2020 with the Spartans.

He was named SJSU's director of football operations in January 2017. During his professional career, he has been involved with eight teams to win a conference championship and/or participate in a post-season bowl game including the 2020 San José State University team. Thienes received the 2022 Football Scoop Operations Director of the Year Award presented by AstroTurf at the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) annual convention. The award encompasses the 2020 and 2021 seasons when the Spartans won the Mountain West championship in 2020 and the daily challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic locally, statewide, and nationally.

Thienes came to the Spartans after serving as the linebackers coach and director of player personnel at Portland State University for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. The 2015 Vikings made their first appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs in 15 years.

He began his college athletics career in 2007 at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High school in Parkland, Fla., as an assistant football coach. He was the team's defensive coordinator, special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Thienes spent the 2008 through 2010 seasons at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa as an assistant football coach and strength and conditioning coordinator. Ellsworth won the 2008 and 2009 NJCAA Region XI Championships and Graphic Edge Bowls.

During the 2011 through 2013 seasons, he was a graduate assistant for the Boise State football program. He worked with the defensive backs and had various special teams' responsibilities. The Broncos were the 2012 Mountain West champions, won bowl games in two of his three seasons and compiled an overall 31-8 win-loss record.

Thienes was at the University of Washington as a graduate assistant in 2014. He worked with the linebackers and special teams' players. The Huskies finished their season playing in the Cactus Bowl.

The 2008 Boise State University graduate majored in psychology. He earned a master's degree in kinesiology & behavioral studies from Boise State in 2013.

He and his wife Rachel reside in Tucson and have a daughter, Adelaine, and a son, Rex.

BRANDON SANDERS

Coordinator of Football Alumni & High School Relations

Year at Arizona: 4th

As a legendary Wildcat alum, Brandon Sanders was appointed Coordinator of Football Alumni and High School Relations in February of 2021. At the time, Sanders became the third of four Arizona Football alumnus to join the staff, following Ricky Hunley and Chuck Cecil who were named assistant coaches in December of 2020.

In his role, Sanders will be a pivotal part of Arizona Football's outreach, alumni and community relations and operations. He will also work closely with the athletic department's "A-Club" for Letterwinners while supporting the program's on-campus recruiting activities and player development initiatives.

Sanders was a two-time First Team All-Pac-10 selection as a safety for the Wildcats in 1994 and 1995 as Arizona would go on to finish the 1993 season ranked number one nationally in total defense. By the time his college career ended, Sanders ranked third in school history in pass breakups while amassing 199 total tackles, five sacks and nine interceptions in 46 career starts. He went on to play three seasons with the New York Giants of the NFL before playing in NFL Europe and the XFL.

The San Diego native has extensive coaching experience as well in both the Indoor Football League as well as the head coach of Pueblo Magnet High School in Tucson where he guided the Warriors to a pair of region titles and three state playoff appearances. Sanders won 70 percent of his regular season games at Pueblo, won regional coach of the year awards and was named 2019 Southern Arizona Coach of the Year.

RICKY HUNLEY

Executive Director, Player Relations and External Development

Year at Arizona: 4th

Hunley enters his first season as Executive Director, Player Relations and External Development in 2024 following three seasons as defensive line coach.

He was drafted seventh overall in the 1984 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and would play in 91 games over seven seasons for the Broncos, the Cardinals and the Raiders. He would go on to become the fifth Arizona alum to play in the Super Bowl as he was a member of both Denver Broncos teams that played in Super Bowls XXI and XXII. Hunley was elected executive vice president of the NFL Players Association, serving a term from 1990 to 1992.

During his first season with Arizona in 2021 he produced arguably the most successful position group in the Wildcats locker room. The Cats defensive line combined for 39.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks while producing two All-Pac-12 honorees in Kyon Barrs (second team) and Trevon Mason (HM). Barrs led the team with five sacks, the most by a Wildcat since 2017, and ranked fifth in the conference in sacks per game. Arizona finished the year ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in sacks per game, while their average of 5.8 TFL per game ranked second on the circuit.

Hunley played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

Hunley's previous coaching stop saw him leading the Memphis defensive line from 2014 to 2015, where he helped coach the Tigers to a combined 19 wins and two bowl game appearances, including a win over BYU in the Miami Beach Bowl in 2014.

In 2014, Memphis ranked 11th in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 19.5 points per game. The Tigers ranked 27th nationally in total defense, giving up 349.5 yards an outing. Memphis' 106.31 defensive pass efficiency rating led the American Athletic Conference and ranked eighth nationally while the Tigers' 121.5 rushing defense average was 19th nationally.

Hunley coached defensive end Martin Ifedi in 2014, who was drafted in the seventh round by the St. Louis Rams in the 2015 NFL Draft. Ifedi recorded 9.5 tackles for a loss during the 2014 season and also became Memphis' all-time leader in sacks.

His time in Memphis was preceded by 10 seasons in the professional coaching ranks, including time with the NFL's Oakland Raiders (linebackers, 2011), Cincinnati Bengals (linebackers, 2003-07), and Washington Redskins (defensive line, 2002) in addition to three years with the United Football League's California Redwoods/Sacramento Mountain Lions (defensive coordinator, 2009-11).

As the linebackers coach for the Raiders in 2011, he coached Rolando McClain and Kamerion Wimbley who combined for 162 tackles and 12 sacks. The duo also combined for 23 tackles for loss as Wimbley had 15 on his own.

In his five years coaching linebackers for the Bengals, Hunley coached Landon Johnson, who had at least 85 tackles in all four seasons he coached him. Johnson racked up 113 tackles and three forced fumbles in the 2006 season and followed that up with 109 tackles in 2007. In 2005, the Bengals won the NFC North and ranked No. 1 in the NFL in takeaways and interceptions and were sixth in the league in fumbles recovered. He also Coached Brian Simmons, Nate Webster, David Pollack and Odell Thurman during his time in Cincinnati.

In his one season with the Washington Redskins in 2002, Hunley coached hall of famer Bruce Smith, who had nine sacks and 11 tackles for loss in his penultimate season. Hunley also coached Dan Wilkerson, Darryl Gardner and Renaldo Wynn while coaching in Washington.

In 2001, Hunley coached the defensive linemen at Florida and helped the Gators to a 10-2 record and a final ranking of No. 3 under Steve Spurrier. He coached Outland Trophy finalist Alex Brown, who had 10.5 sacks and 13.5 for a loss in 2001 and would go on to be drafted in the fourth round in the 2002 NFL Draft.

During his seven seasons coaching at Missouri, he helped lead the Tigers to a pair of bowl games in 1997 and 1998, including an appearance at the Insight.com Bowl in Tucson in 1998 where the Tigers beat West Virginia and coached 10 All-Big-12 honorees at the defensive line and linebacker positions at Missouri.

Hunley began his coaching journey as a graduate assistant at USC from 1992-93 under head coaches Larry Smith and John Robinson. He then spent seven years in the Big Eight/12 at Missouri coaching the defensive line and linebackers while earning the designation of associate head coach for his final three years with the Tigers. Hunley also spent one year coaching defensive line at Florida in 2001.

Off the field, Hunley was selected as the participant for the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program with the Buffalo Bills, Philadelphia Eagles, San Diego Chargers and the Pittsburgh Steelers. He's been a member of the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association, was a representative for the SEC and Big 12 on the American Football Coaches Association, was a member of the Minority Issues Committee for the Black Coaches Association, was a member of the Coach of the Year Committee for the AFCA and is the founder of the Ricky Hunley Annual Non-Profit Instructional Football Camp for Kids in Tucson, Arizona.

Ricky and his wife, Camille, have two daughters.

TOBRUK BLAINE

Director of Player Development

Year at Arizona: 1st

Tobruk Blaine enters her first season with the Wildcats in 2024 after joining the Arizona Football staff as the Director of Player Development in June of 2024, following 7 years at San Jose State University in a similar role.

Blaine's passion for education and sports, combined with her love for teaching and coaching, allowed her to create a first-of-its-kind player development program at San Jose State University, impacting over 110 Division I collegiate football athletes annually. Known for her practicum learning approach, Blaine fosters the holistic development of collegiate athletes, ensuring they leave college with the essential knowledge, skills, and relationships that will propel them into their future.

While at San Jose State, Blaine helped steward partnerships with Fortune 500 companies to implement an annual bespoke internship program to impact career exposure and professional experience in the tech industry for marginalized student-athletes, increasing by 250% in the first year, contributing to a university-wide grant award of 2 million dollars.

Due to the impact of Beyond Football Blaine elevated in 2021, serving as the Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development and sport administrator. By utilizing the Beyond Football framework, she launched the first-ever student-athlete development program, Beyond Sparta. A program the grew to support over 470 Division 1 Collegiate Athletes across 22 sports each year.

With over 20 years of secondary and higher education experience, paired with coaching, Blaine has an unwavering commitment to collegiate athlete development, using an innovative approach to provide real-life exposure and experience that will excite college athletes about their future beyond sport.

Blaine is a Boise, Idaho native who earned degrees from both Oregon State University and the University of Idaho. She moves to Tucson with her husband Ben, and two children - Landyn (5) & Colby (3).

DR. SURESH V. ARIMELLA*President (designate), The University of Arizona*1st Year

Suresh Garimella is the 27th president of the University of Vermont (UVM). Under his leadership since 2019, UVM underscored its reputation as a premier flagship research university dedicated to providing a world-class student experience and committed to fulfilling its land-grant mission.

Dr. Garimella prioritized access and affordability for UVM students. The university froze tuition for all students during his first five years, while attracting record numbers of undergraduate applications and enrolling the most diverse and talented undergraduate students in the university's history. Through cross-campus collaboration, he motivated a significant expansion of experiential learning opportunities, global experiences, career preparation, and academic advising and support resources to ensure student success.

Dr. Garimella was an enthusiastic leader for UVM's research enterprise, which has distinctive strengths in scholarship and innovation that promote healthy societies and a healthy environment. UVM's success is inextricably tied to the success of Vermont. President Garimella worked to build partnerships with elected officials and government leaders to identify shared priorities that advance the interests of the state and the university.

A professor of mechanical engineering, Dr. Garimella is a highly cited scholar and researcher and a passionate educator and mentor. He has mentored over 90 graduate students and 50 post-doctoral scholars, 29 of whom were placed in prestigious faculty positions across the world, and annually leads an undergraduate seminar class at UVM devoted to engaging students in civil discourse on multifaceted contemporary issues.

He has made seminal contributions to the field of electronics thermal management and energy efficiency at micro and nano scales, and in sustainable energy systems technology and policy. He is coauthor of over 625 refereed publications and 16 issued patents, and has been recognized as an elected Fellow of the National Academy of Inventors, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Garimella is a member of the National Science Board, which oversees the National Science Foundation and serves as an independent body of advisers to both the President and Congress on policy matters related to science and engineering. He serves on the research advisory board of Sandia National Laboratories and is a member of the board of directors at Modine and the executive committee for the Council on Competitiveness. He has applied his expertise to national and international policy issues, having served as a Jefferson Science Fellow at the U.S. Department of State and as Senior Fellow for Energy and Climate Partnership of the Americas.

Prior to Vermont, Dr. Garimella was the Goodson Distinguished Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Executive Vice President for Research and Partnerships at Purdue University. He developed strategic and comprehensive partnerships with major corporations, NGOs, and national governments in Colombia, India, and the Middle East, conceived and implemented ambitious campuswide initiatives in life sciences and integrative data science, and oversaw Purdue's Discovery Park, a unique set of facilities and institutes where the convergence of disciplines helped solve global challenges related to health and life sciences, sustainability, food, energy, and defense and security.

Garimella received his Ph.D. from the University of California, Berkeley, his Master's from Ohio State University, and his bachelor's degree from the Indian Institute of Technology, Madras.

DESIREE REED-FRANCOIS*Vice President & Director, Athletics*1st Year

Veteran college athletics administrator Desiree Reed-Francois was appointed Vice President and Director of Athletics at the University of Arizona on February 19, 2024 following her three-year term as the Director of Athletics at the University of Missouri.

Reed-Francois is Arizona's first-ever fulltime female athletic director and 11th overall in school history. She brought proven business expertise and financial acumen to the Director of Athletics position.

Reed-Francois is an accomplished fundraiser and relationship builder and has transformed two collegiate athletic departments into high-performing, cost-effective operations.

She also has deep ties to the University of Arizona, where she earned her juris doctorate from the James E. Rogers College of Law in 1997.

"There are very few institutions that would entice me to leave an SEC athletics department with strong momentum," said Reed-Francois. "The University of Arizona has tremendous potential and is an institution — and an athletics program — on the rise, and I want to be a part of shaping that future. We will provide a world-class student-athlete experience, which includes competing for championships and being among the nation's elite. I am grateful to President Robbins and the Arizona Board of Regents for this incredible opportunity."

Reed-Francois had served as the Director of Athletics at the University of Missouri since 2021 and her work was recognized by being named a NACDA 2023-24 Athletics Director of the Year as well as a 2024 Sports Business Journal AD of the Year nominee.

Her tenure was marked by raising the athletics program's profile over the past several years to include a top-10 football program, postseason berths across multiple sports, and enhancements to student-athlete welfare and support.

In addition to hiring six head coaches, she has overseen the department's first budget surplus in six years; record-breaking successes in fundraising, including securing the largest gift in Missouri Athletics history of $62 million; five straight semesters of record student-athlete GPAs; attendance growth in football and basketball; the opening of the Stephens Indoor Football Practice Center; significant upgrades to the game-day experience for fans; the growth of the Missouri brand across the state and country; and implementation of innovative Name, Image, Likeness (NIL) initiatives.

The football team earned three bowl bids, including the program's first New Year's Six game – a 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Championship – and finished the 2023 regular season ranked No. 9 in all three major polls while signing highly touted recruiting classes.

Head Coach Eliah Drinkwitz was named 2023 SEC Coach of the Year, RB Cody Schrader was a Consensus All-America choice and won the 2023 Burlsworth Trophy as the nation's best former walk-on. Multiple players earned All-America and All-SEC honors.

Among her other successes Missouri; the hirings of Dennis Gates – Whitten Family Men's Basketball Head Coach, Dawn Sullivan – head volleyball coach, Kerrick Jackson – head baseball coach, Bianca Turati – head tennis coach, Glen Millican – head men's golf coach and Caroline Westrup – head women's golf coach; dozens of enhancements to the game-day fan experience; the implementation of Black & Gold Fridays across the state; a 152% growth in Tiger Scholarship Fund membership; a retooling of the Tigers' NIL program and the creation of the 24-stop Come HOME Tour which covered more than 7,500 miles.

In 2022-2023, men's basketball posted its highest win total since the 2013-14 campaign and was ranked No. 23 in the final Associated Press poll of the regular season for the first time since 2012.

Men's golf grabbed its first NCAA Regional bid since 2018, gymnastics placed in the Top 10 at the 2022 NCAA Championship and softball hosted an NCAA Regional for the second-straight season.

Academically, the Tigers posted a cumulative grade point average of 3.35 in spring 2023 – topping the previous record for any semester of 3.32, set in the fall 2022.

In 2022-23, six sports programs posted perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores and all 18 programs scored above a 965 for the first time since 2012-13, with 16 teams registering a score above 980.

Two teams recorded their best APR score since the first release in 2004 as the Mizzou football program registered a 989 (27 points ahead of the national football average of 962) and men's track posted a 991.

Reed-Francois led Mizzou to its first budget surplus in six years, in part due to innovative revenue-generating ideas including the enhancement and expansion of an in-house ticket sales team with a focus on group and student-ticket sales, the reintroduction of block seating at football games, and a complete retooling of the gameday and in-game experience at football and men's basketball games.

The Tiger Scholarship Fund raised over $41 million in Fiscal Year 2022, the fourth-most productive year in TSF history and the highest total in a year that did not contain a capital campaign.

Prior to her tenure in Columbia, Reed-Francois served as the Director of Athletics at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (2017-2021), revitalizing the department.

During her time with the Rebels, she completed or implemented more than $70 million in facility upgrades; hired seven head coaches, including three who earned conference Coach of the Year honors early in their tenures; oversaw the completion and opening of a $35 million on-campus football training complex; and successfully negotiated a joint-use agreement with the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders with the opening of the new $2 billion Allegiant Stadium.

Prior to ascending to the director's chair, Reed-Francois served several institutions in leadership roles, including as the Deputy Athletics Director at Virginia Tech, as a Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Cincinnati and as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Tennessee.

Additionally, she has worked at Fresno State University, Santa Clara University, San Jose State University, the University of California Berkeley and the University of San Francisco. She also has experience at the professional levels, working with the then Oakland Raiders and the National Football League Management Council.

She is the Vice Chair of the Lead1 Board of Directors and serves on the organization's executive committee, as well as on the boards of Women Leaders in College Sports, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches.

Reed-Francois recently served as Vice Chair of the NCAA Baseball Selection Committee and formerly was a member of the College Football Playoff Committee's operations committee.

In addition, she is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators and has been a presenter at NACDA, NACMA, Women Leaders in College Sports, and Sports Business Journal's annual conventions.

Reed-Francois earned a Bachelor's Degree from UCLA and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Arizona College of Law. She is a member of the State Bar of California and taught law classes at the University of Tennessee and at Santa Clara University.

Prior to her work in college athletics, Reed-Francois worked as a legal associate for the Oakland Raiders and the NFL's Management Council.

A former rowing student-athlete at UCLA, Reed-Francois was also the first female athletic director in Mizzou's history, the first female athletic director in a public institution in the SEC and was the first Hispanic female and woman of color athletics director at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level.

She and her husband, Josh Francois, have a son, Jackson, who is currently a sophomore on the men's basketball team at the University of Arizona.

- Research I University

CAMPUS

- 387 acres in central Tucson, oldest continually maintained green space in Arizona

About us — you and the university, that is

Universities are defined by their people, and you could say the people here were born to challenge “business as usual.” The University of Arizona existed before Arizona was a state. Our first graduating class in 1895 consisted of two women and one male.

Since then, we’ve learned that we’re better together. We do more when we work across backgrounds, skills and perspectives. That’s how we’ve become long-time partners with NASA, leaders in both the arts and sciences, and able to prepare students to succeed in a world where most of the jobs today’s kindergartners will have don’t even exist yet. We know how to converge.

OUR STORIES (just a few)

We only see opportunity.

Our position in the planetary sciences today has much to do with the vision and drive of planetary astronomer Gerard P. Kuiper. Kuiper is known as the father of planetary science, but during his time was a little bit of an outcast in his field.

Kuiper proposed there was a belt of small planets or comets orbiting beyond Neptune, even though none except Pluto had been found. Astronomers now refer to this region as the Kuiper belt.

Today, the university has been part of every planetary mission with NASA and when others proved just how hard it is to sample an asteroid, we came up with a better way to do it. The current UA-led OSIRIS-REx mission will bring home the biggest piece of space since the Apollo era.

Beyond curious.

Each year, cardiac arrest kills about 326,000 people in the United States, yet traditional CPR only offers a 7.8 percent survival rate.

In the early 1990s, UA cardiologist Dr. Gordon Ewy listened to a 911 recording of a woman giving her husband CPR. When he heard the woman ask the dispatcher why her husband opened his eyes when she pressed his chest but went to sleep when she did mouth-to-mouth, he developed chest-compression-only CPR, nearly doubling survival rates.

In a world that’s changing rapidly, we have a lot of questions. Like whether humans and robots could ever be friends? Or how we’ll cure ALS or Alzheimer’s? We’re confident we’ll deliver because discovery starts with a dream.

Driven by our history.

When President Kennedy said the U.S. will put a man on the moon, NASA called us because we were the only ones who understood the lunar surface.

Today, our country is looking to shape the future of medicine. Certain medicines work for some people but not for others. Why? And since genes, the environment and lifestyle can predict the diseases we’re susceptible to, we must create individualized and preventative medicine.

In 2015, then-President Barack Obama launched the Precision Medicine Initiative to change treatments designed for the average patient into individualized treatments. The University of Arizona is one of four academic health centers chosen to participate because of our expertise in genetics, our partnership with Banner Health and our ability to reach underserved populations who have been historically omitted from data collection and research.

In touch with our values.

When we say people are our strength, we mean it. In fact, in 2018 we earned the designation of Hispanic-Serving Institution from the U.S. Department of Education for our success in the enrollment of Hispanic students and in providing educational opportunities to them.

And we honor our commitments to the state of Arizona by serving the entire state. When farmers don’t know what is hurting their crops, or city planners are dealing with the future of water, they rely on the University of Arizona’s statewide network of knowledgeable staff to help solve their problems.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jayden de Laura accounted for four touchdowns Tacario Davis returned a blocked field goal 85 yards for a score and Arizona opened the season a 38-3 win over Northern Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona (1-0) lost to the FCS Lumberjacks (0-1) at home two years ago at the start of coach Jedd Fisch's desert rebuild. The Wildcats had a hard time getting out of their own way in the first half of the rematch before rolling over Northern Arizona in the second.

Sparked by Davis' return, Arizona turned an 11-point halftime lead to 32 by the end of the third quarter. De Laura punctuated the outburst with a 53-yard TD run, nearly losing his balance before racing up the sideline.

De Laura threw for 285 yards and three touchdowns with an interception in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

The Lumberjacks' last trip to Tucson was a nadir for them, a low point for the Wildcats.

Northern Arizona's 21-19 win in 2021 was its first over a Pac-12 opponent and extended Arizona's losing streak to 15 games, which would later reach 20.

Only a handful of Wildcats' players are still on the roster from that game, but it was certainly on their minds.

Arizona got off to a good start, scoring on a 4-yard TD pass from de Laura to Jacob Cowing. Jonah Coleman made it 14-0 by breaking a tackle and reaching for the pylon on a 7-yard touchdown catch.

The rest of the half was littered with mistakes.

The Wildcats turned the ball over on downs at NAU's 35-yard line and de Laura lost a fumble inside NAU's 20-yard line.

Defensively, Arizona extended NAU's last drive with a roughing the kicker penalty and later added a personal foul. After a holding call negated a touchdown, Marcus Lye kicked a 49-yard field goal to pull the Lumberjacks within 14-3 - still within striking distance despite being outgained 263-100 in total yards.

Riding the momentum of a close first half, NAU reached Arizona's 14-yard line with the help of a targeting penalty on Arizona defensive back Gunner Maldonado. After a holding call negated a Lumberjacks' touchdown, Ta'ita'i Uiagalelei blocked Lye's field goal attempt and Davis returned it for a touchdown.

Momentum, shifted.

Arizona's defense stopped the Lumberjacks on a fourth-and-2 from their own 38 the next series. Four plays later, de Laura found Tetairoa McMillan on a 5-yard touchdown and later scored on the 53-yard run to make it 35-3.

THE TAKEAWAY

Northern Arizona: The Lumberjacks didn't pull off the upset this time, but did enough good things against a Pac-12 opponent that should help them in Big Sky play.

Arizona: The Wildcats had some shaky moments early and too many penalties. The end result turned out to be what they expected against an FCS opponent.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Northern Arizona's three points were the fewest allowed by the Arizona defense since holding California to three points during a 10-3 victory in 2021. It was also the fewest points allowed by the Wildcats in a season opener since shutting out NAU 35-0 to kick off the 2013 season.
- Arizona's blocked field goal returned 85 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter was their first in 21 years (last: Gary Love, 2002, vs. North Texas, 60 yards). The kick was blocked by Ta'ita'i Uiagalelei and returned by Tacario Davis.
- Davis' 85-yard return was the longest blocked field goal returned for a touchdown in the Pac-12 since at least 1996 (next longest: 83 yards, Dennis Weathersby, 2002, for Oregon State vs. UCLA).

RECAP

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi State forced five Arizona turnovers but had to rally in overtime on Saturday night to earn a 31-24 victory.

Jeffery Pittman caught a screen pass, bounced off a tackler and raced 29 yards for the go-ahead score and the Bulldog defense got a stop in the final possession to seal the win.

The game ended with Arizona quarterback Jayden de Laura stopped inches short of a first down on a 4th-and-10 scramble.

Interceptions from Bookie Watson, Jett Johnson and Shawn Preston started the first three Mississippi State defensive possessions and the Bulldogs turned two of the three turnovers into touchdowns. Another turnover came inside the red zone for Arizona as Preston knocked a ball loose and Hunter Washington scooped it up. Johnson got another interception in the fourth quarter.

Despite that dominance on the defensive side of the ball, the Bulldogs never fully secured the game until the final stop. The Wildcats trailed 14-7 at the half after scoring on a 1 yard plunge with 2 seconds left. Arizona tied the game at 21 in the fourth quarter with an 11-yard touchdown from de Laura to Tetairoa McMillan.

Arizona was able to hit a 36-yard field goal by Tyler Loop to send the game to overtime.

The Bulldogs (2-0) were out-gained 431-307 in the win. Will Rogers was 13-of-17 for 162 yards and three touchdowns and the offense ran for 145 yards on 39 carries. Woody Marks finished with 24 carries for 123 yards and a touchdown, his second-straight 100-yard game after failing to record such a game his previous three years.

de Laura overcame those four interceptions to keep the Wildcats in the game. The senior was 32-of-46 for 342 yards and two scores and rushed eight times for 44 yards.

Arizona running back Michael Wiley finished with 33 yards on the ground and eight catches for 60 yards in the game. Wide receiver Jacob Cowing caught seven passes for 31 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively for Arizona, Jacob Manu and Ta'ita'i Uiagalelei both collected sacks and Manu tied with Justin Flowe for the team lead in tackles with 12.

BIG PICTURE

Mississippi State: The Bulldogs play calling in the game left much to be desired as they stayed with the run game despite stalling regularly. Equally, the defense gave up huge plays. In the end, the Bulldogs won the game and stayed undefeated with a huge game next week to start SEC play.

Arizona: The Wildcats nearly avenged a 39-17 loss to the Bulldogs in Tucson last year. It showed the continued progress of Jedd Fisch and the Wildcats after the team went from one win in 2022 to 5-7 last year.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jayden de Laura threw for 285 yards and three touchdowns, and Arizona's defense shut down UTEP for a 31-10 win on Saturday night.

The Wildcats (2-1) bounced back from an overtime road loss to Mississippi State last week with a dominating defensive performance. Arizona forced the Miners (1-3) into a fumble, a turnover on downs and seven punts in 10 drives before scoring a late touchdown.

The Wildcats poured it on offensively after some shaky early moments, pushing an 11-point halftime lead to 28 early in the fourth quarter. De Laura led the way after throwing four interceptions last week, hitting 23 of 29 passes with no interceptions in Arizona's 14th straight win over UTEP.

The Wildcats played a choppy first half against the Miners a week after turning it over five times against Mississippi State

Tetairoa McMillan turned a receiver screen into an 18-yard touchdown, but also lost a fumble near midfield. McMillan later had a spectacular one-handed, 37-yard catch to UTEP's 32. The Miners blocked Tyler Loop's 45-yard field goal to prevent Arizona from capitalizing.

Arizona looked sharp offensively on a closing 57-yard drive, taking a 14-3 halftime lead when Michael Wiley bulled in for a 3-yard touchdown run.

The Wildcats had a 333-159 advantage in total first-half yards.

While its defense continued to dominate, Arizona's offense found its groove in the second half.

Loop kicked a 38-yard field goal on the Wildcats' opening drive and Jonah Coleman broke off a 59-yard run on the next possession. De Laura kept the drive going by converting a third down with a flip throw to Wiley for a 15-yard gain, then found Jacob Cowing for a 2-yard touchdown reception.

Montana Lemonious-Craig put Arizona up 31-3 early in the fourth quarter on a 4-yard touchdown pass, three plays after Gunner Maldonado snatched the ball from UTEP running back Mike Franklin for a fumble recovery.

THE TAKEAWAY

UTEP: The Miners kept it close in the first half against a Power Five opponent for the second straight week, only to wear down again in the second half.

Arizona: The Wildcats got in their own way through most of the first half before clicking late in the second half. A strong game from de Laura was just what they needed to bounce back from last week's loss.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- The Wildcats limited UTEP to just 49 yards on the ground, marking the 24th time that an Arizona opponent has gone for 50 or fewer yards since 1996.
- Arizona's defense held their opponent to fewer than 300 yards through the air and fewer than 50 yards on the ground for the first time since limiting California to 94 passing/28 rushing in 2021. It was their 20th time accomplishing the feat since 1996.
- The Wildcats offense also put up notable numbers, posting their first 300-yard passing and 200-yard rushing performance since throwing for 350 yards and running for 216 against Colorado in 2018.

RECAP

SATNFORD, Calif. (AP) — DJ Williams scored a go-ahead touchdown from two-yards out midway through the fourth quarter to finish off a nine-play drive as Arizona beat Stanford 21-20 on Saturday to open Pac-12 Conference play with a road win.

The Wildcats closed out the win with backup quarterback Noah Fifita under center, after starter Jayden de Laura left the game early in the fourth quarter with an apparent injury.

Stanford - coming off a loss to FCS-member Sacramento State in last week home opener - also entered the game on a five-game conference losing streak, but had won the previous six contests against Arizona. The Wildcats had not won at Stanford since 2006.

The Cardinal entered the fourth quarter with a 17-14 lead after a Sedrick Irvin 1-yard touchdown run late in the third. But down by a point after Arizona touchdown, Stanford could not get a stop as the Wildcats ran out the clock.

Arizona (3-1) took a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter on Tanner McLachlan longest career reception. McLachlan 36-yard catch-and-run touchdown came after de Laura pumped left, then right before finding the tight end wide open over the middle.

Stanford (1-3) reclaimed the lead before halftime with the help of a pass interference penalty that wiped away an Arizona interception in the end zone. Bryce Farrell ran in from two yards out to put the Cardinal in front 10-7.

De Laura was 14-for-26 for 157 yards in the air, throwing and running for a touchdown before getting hurt. He capped off an 11-play, 66-yard drive on the Wildcats first possession of the second half with a 7-yard touchdown run, fooling the defense on a fake handoff to reach the end zone untouched.

The Cardinal rotated between Justin Lamson and Ashton Daniels at quarterback, sometimes in the middle of drives. Stanford head coach Troy Taylor said during the week that both quarterbacks would see playing time throughout the season.

Daniels was 15-for-27 for 202 yards, while Lamson was 4-for-6 for 48 yards but ran for 57 yards.

The Arizona Wildcats return home for Family Weekend against Washington. The kickoff is set for 7 p.m. MST on Pac-12 Network.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona secured their first road win at Stanford since 2006 on Saturday night. It marked Arizona's first 1-0 start to conference play since 2019, when they opened their Pac-12 schedule with a 20-17 home win over UCLA.
- The Wildcats defense held the Cardinal to just 20 points, the fewest Arizona has allowed on the road to a Pac-12 pponent since 2018 (W, 35-14; at OSU).
- Arizona's five sacks are the most recorded by the team since notching five against Colorado in 2018. The Wildcats are 7-0 during the Pac-12 era when notching at least five sacks.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Michael Penix Jr. threw for 363 yards, Dillon Johnson ran for two touchdowns as Arizona falls 31-24 to No. 7 Washington Saturday night.

The Huskies (5-0, 2-0 Pac-12) arrived in the desert with more big plays than any other team in the country.

With the Wildcats taking away the deep ball, Penix turned to underneath throws, giving his receivers opportunities to make plays after the catch.

They did, following downfield blocking and breaking tackles to turn short throws into chunk plays. Washington's run game provided the finishing touches, scoring all four of the Huskies' touchdowns.

Penix completed 30 of 40 passes in Washington's 12th straight win over two seasons.

Coming off a one-point win at Stanford, the Wildcats (3-2, 1-1) had few answers for Washington's offense and didn't do enough when they had the ball to pull off the upset.

Noah Fifita threw for 232 yards and three touchdowns with an interception in his first career start. He hit Tetairoa McMillan on a 10-yard touchdown pass to pull Arizona to 31-24 with 1:11 left, but Washington recovered the onside kick.

Washington was in a similar position a year ago, 4-0 and in the College Football Playoff conversation. The Huskies stumbled in their first road game with a loss to UCLA and lost again to Arizona State.

Washington's offense did its part to avoid a repeat.

Penix put the Huskies in position, picking apart the Wildcats with short throws to the sidelines. Washington's run game finished off the drives.

Johnson ran in a 4-yard touchdown on the Huskies' opening drive, receiver Germie Bernard scored on 3-yard run and Will Nixon added an 8-yard TD run.

Arizona's offense got off to a sluggish start without quarterback Jayden de Laura and running back Michael Wiley, both injured last week.

Fifita found a rhythm in the second quarter, orchestrating a 12-play, 75-yard drive capped by an 8-yard touchdown pass to Jacob Cowing. Tyler Loop's 30-yard field goal kept the Wildcats within 21-10 at halftime.

Washington stuck to the same script to start the second half.

Penix hit Josh Cuevas on a 57-yard pass and Devin Culp made a spectacular 18-yard catch with a defender draped on him, putting the Huskies in scoring position. Johnson finished it off, scoring on 4-yard run to put Washington up 28-10.

Fifita hit McMillan on an 8-yard touchdown pass to pull Arizona to 28-17, but threw an ill-advised interception on a flip pass while in the grasp of a defender.

THE TAKEAWAY

Washington: The Huskies showed off their offensive versatility, taking what the defense gave them to pull out a road win before preparing for a showdown with No. 9 Oregon in two weeks.

Arizona: The Wildcats had some good moments offensively despite missing two key players, but had no real answer for Penix and the Huskies' short-throwing offense.

RECAP

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Noah Fifita threw for 303 yards and five touchdowns, four TDs to Jacob Cowing, as Arizona falls in triple overtime 43-41 at No. 9 USC.

USC QB Caleb Williams passed for 219 yards and accounted for four total touchdowns for the Trojans (6-0, 4-0 Pac-12), who botched a 25-yard field goal attempt on the final snap of regulation after Williams led a 59-yard drive in the last 2:08.

The Heisman Trophy winner shook it off and coolly led USC to scores on each of its three overtime possessions. USC called an unorthodox play for the two-point attempt in the third OT, with the entire offensive line shifting out before Williams took the snap and ran the other way, stretching the ball to the pylon.

The defense then finished it when linebacker Mason Cobb led a stop of D.J. Williams behind the line.

Noah Fifita passed for 303 yards and threw two of his five touchdown passes to Jacob Cowing in overtime, but the Wildcats (3-3, 1-2) blew an early 17-point lead and fell just short of a signature victory under third-year coach Jedd Fisch.

USC remained unbeaten at the Coliseum during Riley's 1 1/2 years in charge, but the Trojans needed another superlative effort from their star quarterback to survive the Wildcats' energized upset bid.

After USC went up 28-20 on Caleb Williams' second TD run early in the fourth quarter, Arizona tied it with 8:17 to play on a gutsy TD pass and a two-point conversion pass by Fifita. The Wildcats forced a punt by USC and drove past midfield, but Tyler Loop missed a 50-yard field goal attempt with 2:08 to play.

But the Trojans didn't get points after having first-and-goal with 24 seconds left. Williams misfired on a pass and fumbled another snap before a high snap on fourth down forced USC's holder out of his crouch, stunning the Coliseum into silence.

Tanner McLachlan also caught a TD pass from Fifita, an Orange County native with a huge block of family and friends in the Coliseum stands while he filled in impressively for injured Jayden de Laura. Fifita went 25 of 35.

Cowing caught 10 passes for 87 yards and four TDs, and Jonah Coleman rushed for 143 yards.

USC's normally polished offense seemed weird from the start of the latest wacky night game in the Pac-12.

The Trojans failed to score a touchdown on their opening drive for the first time this season and promptly fell behind in a game for the first time this season. Fifita's TD passes to Cowing and McLachlan put Arizona up 17-0 early in the second quarter, and Williams fumbled near midfield on USC's next possession.

But Fifita threw an interception to Jacob Covington, and Williams made a 4-yard run for USC's first points. Kyrone Hudson caught a TD pass from Williams two seconds before halftime, and MarShawn Lloyd's TD run put the Trojans ahead in the third quarter.

Williams fought through Arizona's Treydan Stukes and stretched the ball across the goal line to cap a 77-yard drive with 12:54 left in regulation, but Fifita made a cool TD throw to Cowing while getting clobbered by USC's Jamil Muhammad.

Williams rushed 18 yards for a TD in the first overtime, but Cowing caught a TD pass from Fifita on Arizona's first OT snap. Cowing scored again to open the second overtime, but USC safety Calen Bullock swatted away Fifita's pass on the conversion attempt.

Austin Jones then rushed for an 11-yard TD for USC, but Williams couldn't hit Brenden Rice for the win.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- WR Jacob Cowing set a program record with four receiving touchdowns against the Trojans. The previous record of three was accomplished 10 times, including once by Cowing in week one of the 2022 season at San Diego State.
- QB Noah Fifita's five touchdown passes are the most ever thrown by an Arizona quarterback against a ranked opponent.
- RB Jonah Coleman finished the game with a career-high 143 rushing yards. It was the Wildcats first 100+ yard rushing performance since Michael Wiley went for 214 on the ground in the 2022 Territorial Cup.
- WR Tetairoa McMillan pulled in six receptions for 138 yards, giving the sophomore his third career 100-yard performance (second this season).

RECAP

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Quarterback Noah Fifita threw for 342 yards, Jonah Coleman had 168 total yards and three rushing touchdowns and Arizona's defense forced three turnovers in a 44-6 upset of No. 19 Washington State on Saturday. It was the largest margin of victory on the road against a ranked opponent in program history for Arizona.

The Wildcats (4-3, 2-2 Pac-12) scored 44 straight points to break through in a big way after nearly upsetting two top-10 teams the last two weeks.

Fifita started his third straight game in place of the injured Jayden de Laura, a former Washington State QB. He was masterful from the start against the Cougars, who dropped their second consecutive game after starting 4-0 and reaching No. 13 in the AP Top 25.

Fifita was 34 of 43 passing, but didn't throw any touchdowns. All of Arizona's scores came on the ground. Coleman scored on runs of 1, 1 and 23 yards. Rayshon Luke rushed for 70 yards, including a 40-yard TD, and DJ Williams scored from 15 yards.

Coleman also had four catches for 98 yards.

The Cougars (4-2, 1-2) scored on Nakia Watson's 1-yard run on their first drive but looked lifeless on offense after that. They were stopped on fourth down deep in their own territory, threw an interception on a double-pass and punted on their next three possessions before halftime.

After a sizzling first month of the season, the Cougars' offense sputtered for the second straight week. Cameron Ward was 22 of 30 for 192 yards and two turnovers. Watson led Washington State with 88 yards receiving.

When the Cougars tried to get tricky, it backfired. Backup quarterback John Mateer was intercepted on a double-pass in the second quarter, and the Wildcats answered with Luke's 40-yard TD run. Arizona led 20-6 at halftime and was never threatened in the second half.

WAZZU'S RUSHING WOES

For the second straight week, the Cougars couldn't get their rushing attack going. They managed 35 yards on the ground after netting 12 yards last week at UCLA. Washington State entered 117th in the FBS in rushing, averaging 103.6 yards per game.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: The Wildcats may look back at this win as a pivotal moment in the early Jedd Fisch era. After two overtime losses and a near-upset of USC last week, they will now have the full attention of the rest of the Pac-12.

Washington State: A season that started so promising has gone sideways in a hurry. After their first loss of the season last week at UCLA, the Cougars looked out of sorts in all facets.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona has now posted back-to-back years with road wins over teams ranked in the AP Top 25 for the first time since 1997 and 1998. It's their first time accomplishing the feat as an unranked team since 1981 and 1982.
- The Wildcats 38-point margin of victory ties their largest MOV over a ranked opponent in program history (also: No. 7 UCLA, 2005). It is the largest MOV in a road game against a ranked opponent in program history.
- RB Jonah Coleman's 69-yard catch was the longest reception by an Arizona running back since Bam Smith went 75 yards against UCLA in 2019. During the StatsPass era (1996-present), Coleman's 69-yard catch is the third longest by an Arizona running back.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Noah Fifita threw two touchdown passes to Michael Wiley in the fourth quarter and Arizona beat No. 11 Oregon State 27-24 Saturday night for its second-straight win over a ranked opponent.

The Wildcats (5-3, 3-2 Pac-12) had a week off following a 44-6 win over then-No. 19 Washington State that matched their largest margin of victory over a ranked team.

Arizona maintained its momentum against Oregon State (6-2, 3-2 Pac-12) behind Fifita.

Fifita threw for 275 yards on 25-of-32 passing and three touchdowns, hitting Wiley on passes of 40 and 3 yards in the final quarter. The Wildcats also held Oregon State quarterback DJ Uiagalelei in check most of the night while limiting the Beavers' run game.

Uiagalelei hit Jimmy Valsin III on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:38 left, but Oregon State couldn't come up with the onside kick. Uiagalelei finished with 218 yards and two touchdowns on 16-of-30 passing.

Fifita has played well since Jayden de Laura injured his ankle in Week 4, throwing for 924 yards and eight touchdowns in a little over three games.

The sophomore was solid at the start, opening with a 7-yard touchdown to Tetairoa McMillan in the back of the end zone, then set up Tyler Loop's 51-yard field goal. Fifita threw an interception near midfield late in the first half, but Oregon State couldn't capitalize, leaving the game tied at 10-all at halftime.

Fifita moved Arizona into position for another Loop field goal early in the third quarter, this one from 25 yards, and found Wiley on the three-yard score with 2:22 left.

The Beavers made it look easy on their first drive, picking apart the Wildcats on a 75-yard drive capped by Uiagalelei's 22-yard touchdown pass to Jack Velling.

The rest of the first half was a struggle against Arizona's vastly-improved defense.

Oregon State had to settle for a field goal after reaching Arizona's 12-yard line in the second quarter and tried an ill-advised fake field goal from the 16 on the final play before halftime. The Beavers had scored on all 27 of their trips into the red zone this season before the failed fake.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: Fifita may have supplanted de Laura as Arizona's quarterback for good and the Wildcats' defense had another solid night against a ranked opponent.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Noah Fifita threw for 300 yards and three touchdowns, and Arizona knocked off No. 20 UCLA 27-10 on Saturday night to give the Wildcats victories over ranked opponents in three consecutive games for the first time in program history.

Coming off wins over then-No. 19 Washington State and No. 16 Oregon State, the Wildcats (6-3, 4-2 Pac-12) picked apart one of the nation's top defenses to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2017 - two years after going 1-11 in coach Jedd Fisch's first season.

Arizona ran for 129 yards against the FBS' best run defense and Fifita was sharp in his fifth straight start. He connected with Tetairoa McMillan on a 12-yard touchdown pass - originally ruled incomplete - early in the fourth quarter and hit 25 of 32 passes.

The Bruins (6-3, 3-3 Pac-12), one of the nation's most aggressive pass-rushing teams, had a hard time putting pressure on Fifita and couldn't get out of their own way on offense.

UCLA missed two field goals - a recurring problem this season - and turned the ball over on downs after recovering a blocked punt at Arizona's 31 in the fourth quarter.

The Bruins got off to a sluggish start last week against Colorado, turning it over four times in the first half before rallying for a 28-16 win.

UCLA was slow out of the gate again in the desert.

The Bruins had a holding call negate a first down deep in Arizona's end on its opening drive and Blake Glessner missed a 41-yard field goal. A fumble and a sack on another drive forced the Bruins to settle for a field goal and Arizona blocked Glessner's kick - UCLA's fifth straight miss over three games.

The Bruins finally found an offensive rhythm late in the half, quickly moving 75 yards for Ethan Garbers' 17-yard touchdown pass to Carsen Ryan with three seconds left.

Fifita picked apart the Bruins in the first half with quick-hitting passes to set up a pair of scores. He threw two 9-yard TD passes, to Montana Lemonious-Craig and Jacob Cowing, to put the Wildcats up 14-7 at halftime.

BIG PICTURE

The Wildcats played one of the most difficult stretches of any team in the country, facing five straight ranked opponents. Arizona went 3-2 in that stretch, its two losses coming by a combined nine points. The Wildcats could be ranked in next week's poll for the first time since reaching No. 23 in 2017.

RECAP

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Tyler Loop connected on a 24-yard field goal with no time remaining, and No. 23 Arizona rallied to beat Colorado 34-31 on Saturday at sold-out Folsom Field.

Jonah Coleman rushed for 179 yards as the Wildcats (7-3, 5-2 Pac-12, No. 21 CFP) won their four straight game.

Arizona trailed 24-17 at the break, and didn't take its first lead until Loop's field goal. The Wildcats are 13-74 when trailing at halftime in the Pac-12 era.

Shedeur Sanders ran for a score and threw for two more as the Buffaloes (4-6, 1-6) lost for the sixth time in seven games since a 3-0 start. Sanders also finished with 262 yards passing to go over the 10,000-yard mark for his career.

Colorado kicker Alejandro Mata missed a 44-yard field goal to the right with 4:57 remaining.

Coleman then went to work and helped the Wildcats put together an 11-play, 67-yard drive, setting up Loop's winner. Loop also connected on a career-best 52-yard field goal with 1:32 remaining before halftime.

Arizona receiver Montana Lemonious-Craig caught five passes for 67 yards against his former team. Lemonious-Craig entered the transfer portal after Colorado's spring game and has been a dependable target for Noah Fifita.

Tetairoa McMillan had nine catches for 107 yards for the Wildcats, highlighted by a one-handed grab in the end zone for a 2-yard score that tied the game at 24-apiece early in the third quarter.

Colorado's offense found some early rhythm with Pat Shurmur, recently promoted to the role of co-offensive coordinator, calling the plays from the press box and fellow offensive boss Sean Lewis signaling them in from the sideline.

The Buffaloes scored just once in the second half.

Sanders' 7-yard TD pass to tight end Michael Harrison late in the third was on the heels of a roughing call on Arizona defensive end Taylor Upshaw. Upshaw briefly joined Colorado in the spring before transferring to Arizona. As Sanders was getting up following the hit, he had some words for Upshaw.

Two-way standout Travis Hunter had five catches for 74 yards on offense and six tackles, along with a pass breakup, on defense.

Sanders, who started his career at Jackson State, is closing in on single-season program records. He has thrown for 3,144 yards this season, just behind the single-season mark of 3,200 set by Sefo Liufau in 2014.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Noah Fifta threw for two touchdowns and No. 19 Arizona used a fast start to beat No. 16 Utah 42-18 on Saturday for its first five-game winning streak in nine years.

The Wildcats (8-3, 6-2 Pac-12, No. 17 CFP) manhandled the two-time reigning Pac-12 champions from the opening drive, building a 28-0 lead by the first play of the second quarter.

Utah (7-4, 4-4) tightened up after that despite playing without three of its best defensive players, but Arizona's defense was just as good in the final Pac-12 game at Arizona Stadium.

The Wildcats intercepted passes by Bryson Barnes twice in their end and forced a turnover on downs near midfield to beat four AP Top 25 teams in a season for the first time since 1989.

Fifta threw for 253 yards on 22-of-30 passing against a Utah defense missing rover Karene Reid, safety Cole Bishop and defensive end Jonah Elliss.

Still, in the mix for a spot in the Pac-12 championship game, the Wildcats charged out of the gate like they still had something to play for.

The Utes, out of the running for a third straight Pac-12 title, did not.

Arizona revved up an already-charged crowd by scoring on its opening drive with a trick play. Receiver Tetairoa McMillan caught a backward pass from Fifta and threw to a wide-open Michael Wiley for a 21-yard touchdown.

Anthony Ward then juiced a blocker, smothered Jack Bouwmeester's punt and returned it two yards for another score. Montana Lemonious-Craig's 32-yard touchdown on a sideline pass made it 21-0 in the game's first 11 minutes.

The Wildcats weren't done. Wiley turned another sideline pass into a 31-yard touchdown on the first play of the second quarter.

Jacob Manu spoiled Utah's first sustained drive with an interception at Arizona's 10, but Barnes regrouped and found Devaughn Vele on a 20-yard touchdown pass to pull the Utes within 28-7 at halftime.

Neither offense could gain much traction until Noah Coleman bounced outside for a 1-yard touchdown that put Arizona up 35-10 in the fourth quarter.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona has now won five straight games against conference opponents for the first time since 1998. Arizona defeated Oregon State 28-7, No. 12 Oregon 38-3, Washington State 41-7, California 27-23, and Arizona State 50-42.
- The Wildcats current seven-win jump over the 2021 team's 1-11 mark is tied for the largest two-year improvement in program history. Arizona also improved by seven wins between the 1996 (5-6) and 1998 (12-1) seasons.
- Starting QB Noah Fifta, WR Tetairoa McMillan, and QB Jayden de Laura all threw touchdown passes against the Utes. It is the first time in the StatPass era (1996-current) that Arizona has had three different players throw touchdown passes in one game.

RECAP

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Noah Fifita threw for a school-record 527 yards and five touchdowns, Michael Wiley scored three times and No. 16 Arizona put an emphatic end to the Pac-12 era of the Territorial Cup rivalry with a 59-23 rout over Arizona State on Saturday.

The Wildcats (9-3, 7-2 Pac-12, No. 15 CFP) were humiliated 70-7 by Arizona State two years ago, the wound salted by a mocking billboard erected by Sun Devils' fans along Interstate 10 between Tempe and Tucson.

Arizona fans may want to put up a billboard of their own after the embarrassment shifted north in the final game before the rivals head to the Big 12 next year.

The Wildcats took no pity on the injury-riddled Sun Devils (3-9, 2-7), racking up 619 yards of offense. Tetairoa McMillan had a Territorial Cup-record 266 yards and a touchdown on 11 catches. Jacob Cowing had nine catches for 157 yards.

Fifita finished 30 of 41 to break Anu Solomon's school record of 520 yards passing against California in 2014.

Arizona also intercepted Jaden Rashada twice - both set up touchdowns - to complete its first six-game winning streak since 1998. Rashada threw for 82 yards and a touchdown on 10-of-22 passing in his first game since Sept. 9 - nowhere close to good enough the way the Wildcats were rolling.

Arizona got some relief last season, ending Arizona State's five-game Territorial Cup winning streak with a three-point home win. The Wildcats wanted even more in their return to Tempe and got it, hitting chunk plays in the passing game to set up short touchdowns while racing off to a 38-7 halftime lead.

Tanner McLachlan scored on a 3-yard, side-armed pass from Fifita. Jonah Coleman burst up the middle for a 4-yard touchdown. Wiley scored on runs of 22 and 1 yards.

All four touchdowns were set up by passing plays of 15 or more yards to McMillan or Cowing.

Fifita had the most passing yards by an Arizona quarterback in Territorial Cup history by halftime, hitting the 357-yard mark on a 22-yard TD pass to Wiley.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona rushed for 156 yards against Utah after going for 163 last week against USC. This marks the first time the Wildcats have rushed for 150+ yards in back-to-back games since going for 431 and 314 against Northern Arizona and Texas Tech, respectively, in weeks two and three of the 2019 season.
- Noah Fifita's fourth-quarter touchdown pass to former high school teammate Tetairoa McMillan was the first passing touchdown of his collegiate career.
- The safety forced by the Wildcats late in the fourth quarter was the first forced by a Utah opponent since USC on Sept. 20, 2019.

RECAP

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Gunner Maldonado returned a fumble 87 yards for a touchdown and also had an interception as No. 14 Arizona forced six turnovers in a 38-24 comeback victory over No. 12 Oklahoma on Thursday night in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Noah Fifta threw for 354 yards and two touchdowns for Arizona (10-3). The Wildcats closed with seven straight victories as they depart the Pac-12 to join the Big 12 next season. Leaving the Big 12 to join the Southeastern Conference, Oklahoma also finished 10-3.

Tetairoa McMillan had 10 receptions for 160 yards for Arizona.

Oklahoma freshman Jackson Arnold threw for 361 yards and two touchdowns, but also had three interceptions in his first career start. Arnold started in place of Dillon Gabriel, who is transferring to Oregon after throwing for 3,660 yards and 30 touchdowns this season.

Sooners running back Gavin Sawchuk rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries.

Arnold opened the game 3 for 8 with two interceptions before settling in behind the running game.

With Arizona holding a 13-0 lead, Sawchuk scored on an 18-yard rushing touchdown.

Oklahoma took a 14-13 lead when Arnold scrambled to his left to escape heavy pressure and tossed a 10-yard pass to a sliding Nic Anderson in the left corner of the end zone. The touchdown was set up by a 62-yard run by Sawchuk and 19-yard carry by Arnold.

Arnold's second pass of the game was intercepted by freshman safety Genesis Smith, who jumped the route at the 35-yard line for his first career pick.

Fifta tossed a 35-yard touchdown pass to Jacob Cowing on the ensuing play to give Arizona a 10-0 lead with 4:27 into the game.

Arnold's second interception of the first quarter came when Maldonado ran from the right hashmark to step in front of the receiver and then tapped both feet inbounds.

Arizona had 181 yards in the first quarter to Oklahoma's 36.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete - John Bonano

John Bonano earned NCAA and Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarships, the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal. He was named a 2012 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, the 2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, was a three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree.

In 2012, Bonano ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in scoring and No. 1 among kickers with 7.8 points per game. In his final campaign, he was 58-of-59 in PATs and 14-of-20 in field goals. He also ran in for a two-point conversion against ASU. Bonano's PAT with 0:19 to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl gave the Wildcats the go-ahead score to win the game, 49-48. He owns the school record for consecutive PAT kicks made with 73.

Additionally, Bonano earned a 2013 Pillar of Excellence Award, given out by Arizona's Honors College to distinguished graduating seniors. On March 3, Bonano was honored by the Southern Arizona Chapter of the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Scholar-Athlete. He earned his degree in physiology in December 2012.

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF) and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-season, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Player of the Year Awards

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990.

Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defended, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

2014 Chuck Bednarik Award, Rotatary Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy - Scooby Wright III

Sophomore linebacker Scooby Wright III swept the national defensive player of the year awards in 2014. Also Arizona's sixth unanimous All-American, he was named the Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year and the CBS Sports.com, Scout.com and SB National National Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time Pac-12 Player of the Week, Wright was also the lone defensive player named Walter Camp Player of the Year Finalist.

He turned in one of the most prolific defensive seasons in NCAA history. He ranked in the top five among FBS players for total tackles (163), tackles for loss (29.0), sacks (14.0) and forced fumbles (6). He set career game-high 19 tackles at UCLA, 5.0 TFL vs. ASU and three forced fumbles at Washington State.

Wright was instrumental in Arizona's 10-win season and bids to the Pac-12 Championship and VIZIO Fiesta Bowl Games.

Wildcats in the NFF College Hall of Fame

Coach Warren Woodson - 1989 Inductee

Arizona's head coach from 1952-56, Warren Woodson was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. He served as Art Luppino's head coach during his NCAA-leading rushing seasons in 1954 and 1955. During his career, he coached six NCAA rushing leaders. He led the Wildcats to a 26-22-3 record during his four seasons in Tucson.

Warren Woodson

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wish-bone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Jim Young

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A three-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

Chuck Cecil

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moment in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year.

In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks -- a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in '94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

Defensive Tackle Tedy Bruschi - 2013 Inductee

With Bruschi as a key component, Arizona's Desert Swarm defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992. In 1993, Desert Swarm led the nation in rushing defense and defined a squad that achieved UA's first 10-victory season, defeating Miami, 29-0, in the Fiesta Bowl. Bruschi was named Fiesta Bowl MVP.

Bruschi (1991-95) ended his career with 52 sacks, tied for the most in NCAA history. He was a consensus All-American in 1994 and a unanimous All-American in 1995.

Bruschi's celebrated senior season included the 1995 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors and winning the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award and graduated with 74 tackles for loss, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Bruschi was named all-conference three times and he led the Wildcats to three bowl berths under head coach Dick Tomey.

The San Francisco native was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi enjoyed a 13-year career, winning three Super Bowls with the franchise. The Pro Bowler was named the Associated Press' Comeback Player of the Year in 2005 following a stroke.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 50 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt. Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles appeared in Super Bowl LVIII with the San Francisco 49ers. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl LIII at Minneapolis, Minn., where quarterback Nick Foles earned MVP honors in leading Philadelphia to the championship. The trio of Super Bowl Cats in 2018 matched the UA's high for a single Super Bowl, first set at Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008, starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats. Current Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski has appeared in four super bowls in the last six seasons.

Arizona Stadium is one of the finest playing facilities in the country and was recently upgraded through one of the most significant improvements in its history. The home of the Wildcats, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus.

The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which opened to the public in August 2013, is a reflection of that growth and completed a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it becomes the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project provides the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation.

The facility is a four-floor operations center with strength and conditioning, sports medicine, coaches' offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure encloses the north end of the stadium and creates a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria also serve fans, campus and the community.

Spectators in the revamped north end of the stadium have a front and center view of the state-of-the-art video board beyond the opposite end zone. In August 2011, Arizona completed work on the video board for the south end zone. The new video board measures 113' wide by 47' high - 6.5 times larger than the previous board - and is one of the largest in all of college sports.

Indeed, the recent upgrades are the latest in the evolution of Arizona Stadium over the years. Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, remaining one of the top venues for its spectators. Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 381 of them at twilight or night, winning 275, losing 174 and tying 12. The team has never failed to win at least one home game in a season and has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added to accommodate increased interest in the football program. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable - UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side, and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side - two of the nation's most venerated research facilities.

In 1938, seating was added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

Expansion on the west side in 1965 provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multilevel press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA.

Permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, however, it would be removed for the new north-end project. The completion of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility gives Arizona Stadium a lower bowl configuration for the first time, a 360-degree experience for Wildcat fans.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic

Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0
Dec. 26, 1921 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl

Drake 14, Arizona 13
Jan. 1, 1949 // Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery Stadium.

The feisty Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl

Auburn 34, Arizona 10
Dec. 28, 1968 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10
Dec. 25, 1979 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl. A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46- and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl

Arizona 13, Georgia 13
Dec. 25, 1985 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl

Arizona 30, North Carolina 21
Dec. 27, 1986 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl

Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10
Dec. 31, 1989 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl

Syracuse 28, Arizona 0
Dec. 25, 1990 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl

Baylor 20, Arizona 15
Dec. 31, 1992 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona 29, Miami 0
Jan. 1, 1994 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII. The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl

Utah 16, Arizona 13
Dec. 27, 1994 // Anaheim, Calif.

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Teddy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl

Arizona 20, New Mexico 14
Dec. 27, 1997 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Spottle earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl

Arizona 23, Nebraska 20
Dec. 30, 1998 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history — to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Las Vegas Bowl

Arizona 31, BYU 21
Dec. 20, 2008 // Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive.

After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Holiday Bowl

Nebraska 33, Arizona 0
Dec. 30, 2009 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a four-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Alamo Bowl

Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10
Dec. 29, 2010 // San Antonio, Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 49, Nevada 48
Dec. 20, 2012 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With a last-minute touchdown and a successful onside kick recovery, Arizona football pulled out a victory over Nevada, 49-48, at the Gildan New Mexico in Albuquerque, N.M. Saturday's game ties the largest comeback in UA history (21 points). Senior quarterback Matt Scott was named Offensive MVP and junior linebacker Marquis Flowers was named Defensive MVP.

Nevada took a 48-35 lead with 1:48 to play. Arizona answered back with a two-yard Scott touchdown pass to sophomore Austin Hill with a good point after attempt to cut the score to 48-42 with 0:46 to play. Senior John Bonano converted a perfect onside kick attempt with the recovery from Flowers. The Wildcats went on to score the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass to sophomore Tyler Slavin from Scott with 0:19 to play. Flowers then immediately secured the victory with an interception on Nevada's final offensive possession.

Sophomore Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns. He now tallies 1,929 yards on the season, to continue to lead the nation in rushing. Carey is now UA's school record holder for rushing TDs in season with 23, including his three against Nevada on Saturday. He also set the Arizona bowl game record of rushing yards in a game (172). The previous bowl game record was 142 yards by Chuck Levy against Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl.

In his final game as a Wildcat, Scott threw for 382 yards and three TDs on 28-of-47 pass attempts with two interceptions. He also rushed for 21 yards on six carries and one touchdown. Hill led the UA receivers with eight catches for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Saturday's game marks his fifth 100-yard performance of the season and the sixth of his career.

True freshman linebacker C.J. Dozier paced the defense with 15 tackles, nine solo and six assisted. Junior Shaquille Richardson collected his first pick of the season and the seventh of his career. Junior Jake Fischer recovered his fourth fumble of the season against the Wolf Pack. Flowers also recorded 10 tackles. UA had five true freshmen playing on defense during various points of the game: Keoni Bush-Loo, Dozier, Vince Miles, William Parks and Wayne Capers Jr.

2013 AdvoCare V100 Bowl

Arizona 42, Boston College 19
Dec. 31, 2013 // Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Arizona football defeated Boston College, 42-19, in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Game in record-breaking fashion, Monday, at Independence Stadium. Senior quarterback B.J. Denker was named Offensive MVP and sophomore William Parks was named Defensive MVP.

The victory gave UA eight wins for a second-consecutive year, marking the first back-to-back eight-win seasons since 2008-09. Along with bowl game records, multiple school records were also broken for the Wildcats.

The six Wildcat touchdowns tied the Bowl record for most touchdowns. The Wildcats also recorded the most first downs in the bowl's history with 49.

The Wildcats' offensive clinic was led by Denker's 275 passing yards. True freshman Nate Phillips had 193 receiving yards and recorded the first 100-yard receiving game for Arizona on the season. He also broke the school record for most receiving yards in a bowl game as well as most receiving yards in a game by a freshman in school history.

Ka'Deem Carey finished off his junior season with 16-straight 100-plus yard games with his 169-yard performance. As well, he has officially become the all-time all-purpose leader in yardage. Prior to Carey, the record was 5,392 yards, held by Dennis Northcutt.

On defense, the Wildcats held the Eagles to just two touchdowns and two field goals. Jake Fischer tied his career-high tackles with 14.

2014 VIZIO Fiesta Bowl

Boise State 38, Arizona 30
Dec. 31, 2014 // Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDAL, Ariz. - No. 21 Boise State was able to hold off another Arizona miraculous comeback as it won the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl, 38-30, in dramatic fashion.

Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick finished the game 24-of-34 for 309 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He also added 29 yards on the ground. Hedrick completed 17-of-18 passes in the first half for 272 yards, while completing his first 14 of the game.

Hedrick's main target and Offensive Player of the Game Thomas Sperbeck had a big game himself, hauling in 12 catches for 199 yards. Running back Jay Ajayi also had a phenomenal game, tallying 22 carries for 134 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensive Player of the Game Tanner Vallejo finished with 14 total tackles for the Broncos. He added 1.5 sacks as well.

For Arizona, quarterback Anu Solomon finished the game 28-of-49 for 335 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions, while rushing for 32 yards and a score, as well. Receiver Cayleb Jones hauled in eight receptions for 117 yards, and Samajie Grant added 69 yards and a touchdown. Running back Nick Wilson carried the ball 19 times for 86 yards and a touchdown.

Both Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Scooby Wright III had good days on the defensive end for the Wildcats. Bondurant finished with 11 total tackles, two for loss, one sack, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Wright added 10 tackles of his own and two for a loss, as well.

Boise State got off to a quick start on their first possession after a 56-yard touchdown run by Ajayi, capping a four-play, 78-yard drive, which took 1:42.

2015 New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 45, New Mexico 37
Dec. 19, 2015 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Quarterback Anu Solomon and All-America linebacker Scooby Wright III returned from injuries to help Arizona (7-6) hold off pesky New Mexico 45-37 in a wild New Mexico Bowl.

Solomon threw for two touchdowns and rushed for another score against New Mexico (7-6) in a game that saw New Mexico surge late after being down as many of 18 points. Wright had two sacks and 11 solo tackles.

After the game, Wright announced he would enter the NFL draft.

Arizona's high-temp offense needed only 19:08 minutes of possession time to overwhelm New Mexico in the Lobos' first bowl appearance since 2007.

Jared Baker ran for 107 yards and three touchdowns, and Cayleb Jones had 182 yards receiving and a touchdown.

For Arizona, the New Mexico Bowl win comes just a year after Arizona eyed a playoff spot. Rodriguez said a bowl appearance and a victory was just fine for the team.

Meanwhile, New Mexico quarterback Lamar Jordan rushed for three touchdowns and threw a 92-yard touchdown pass to Delane Hart-Johnson before leaving in the third quarter with a knee injury. However, Jordan tossed two key interceptions -- one in Arizona's end zone and another deep in New Mexico territory.

After Jordan's departure, the Lobos then turned to a committee of running backs to get New Mexico back in the game.

Still, Arizona was able to hold star running back Jhurrell Pressley to 75 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

2017 Foster Farms Bowl

Purdue 38, Arizona 35
Dec. 27, 2017 // Santa Clara, Calif.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. - Elijah Sindelar threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Mahoungou with 1:44 remaining and Purdue capped coach Jeff Brohm's first season in dramatic style with a 38-35 victory over Arizona in the Foster Farms Bowl on Wednesday night.

The Boilermakers (7-6) had squandered a 17-point halftime lead when Khalil Tate threw his fifth TD pass with 3:21 remaining to give the Wildcats (7-6) the lead.

But Sindelar responded with a 75-yard drive that ended with the deep throw into the end zone to Mahoungou, giving the Boilermakers their first winning record since 2011 and first bowl win over a major conference team since beating Washington in the 2002 Sun Bowl. Sindelar threw for 396 yards and four touchdowns, with Mahoungou (118 yards) and Gregory Phillips (149) each topping the 100-yard mark and catching two TD passes.

Tate was just as good, showing he can win with his arm as well as he can with his legs that carried him to 1,353 yards rushing in the regular season. Tate threw for 302 yards and five touchdowns but his late interception to Jacob Thieneman ended the comeback attempt.

Brohm pulled out all the stops, going for it three times on fourth down, calling a couple of flea-flickers and using an innovative trick play to set up a field goal at the end of the first half that made it 31-14.

The Boilermakers took over at their 32 with 56 seconds left after Tate lost a fumble. Purdue appeared to be taking a knee on the paly to run out the clock, but running back D.J. Knox was crouching hidden behind a guard. Sindelar then handed the ball to Knox, who waited an instant and then ran around left end for a 30-yard gain that helped set up the field goal.

2023 Valero Alamo Bowl

Arizona 38, Oklahoma 24
Dec. 28, 2023 // San Antonio, Texas

SAN ANTONIO — Gunner Maldonado returned a fumble 87 yards for a touchdown and also had an interception as No. 14 Arizona forced six turnovers in a 38-24 comeback victory over No. 12 Oklahoma on Thursday night in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Noah Fifita threw for 354 yards and two touchdowns for Arizona (10-3). The Wildcats closed with seven straight victories as they depart the Pac-12 to join the Big 12 next season. Leaving the Big 12 to join the South-eastern Conference, Oklahoma also finished 10-3.

Tetairoa McMillan had 10 receptions for 160 yards for Arizona.

Oklahoma freshman Jackson Arnold threw for 361 yards and two touchdowns, but also had three interceptions in his first career start. Arnold started in place of Dillon Gabriel, who is transferring to Oregon after throwing for 3,660 yards and 30 touchdowns this season.

Arnold opened the game 3 for 8 with two interceptions before settling in behind the running game.

With Arizona holding a 13-0 lead, Sawchuk scored on an 18-yard rushing touchdown.

Oklahoma took a 14-13 lead when Arnold scrambled to his left to escape heavy pressure and tossed a 10-yard pass to a sliding Nic Anderson in the left corner of the end zone. The touchdown was set up by a 62-yard run by Sawchuk and 19-yard carry by Arnold.

Fifita tossed a 35-yard touchdown pass to Jacob Cowing on the ensuing play to give Arizona a 10-0 lead with 4:27 into the game.

Arnold's second interception of the first quarter came when Maldonado ran from the right hashmark to step in front of the receiver and then tapped both feet inbounds.

Arizona had 181 yards in the first quarter to Oklahoma's 36.

BIG PICTURE

Arizona: The young tandem of Fifita and McMillan continued to dazzle, especially early. McMillan had 74 yards receiving in the first quarter on five catches off six targets.

Oklahoma: Arnold demonstrated at times why he was the 2022 Gatorade National Football Player of the Year at Guyer High School in Denton, but it was also apparent he had never started in college. Arnold stared down his receivers at times and floated passes, which led to the three interceptions.

Future Non-Conference Schedules

Below are future Arizona football non-conference games with finalized contracts between the respective schools dating through the 2033 season. Dates and locations of games remain subject to change in certain cases at the discretion of television partners of the Pac-12 Conference and/or the opposing host institutions' conference or other media rights holders.

Pac-12 Conference schedules are typically announced no later than January of the upcoming season. In the case of Arizona, the Wildcats are scheduled to play five (5) Pac-12 games at Arizona Stadium in even-numbered seasons, with four (4) games on the road. For odd-numbered years, Arizona will play four (4) home conference games with five (5) road contests.

**Due to Arizona's move to the Big 12 beginning with the 2024 football season, future non-conference schedules may be affected.

The Nation’s Oldest Rivalry Trophy

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game - the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists.

Each year, members of the media vote on a Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor as been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history.

- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pac-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

1943 & 1944

World War II Years
No teams fielded

Like many schools around the nation, Arizona did not field a football team during the World War II years of 1943 and 1944. The war began affecting college football programs as early as 1942, though the Wildcats managed a 6-4 record under coach Miles W. Casteel in their final season before the two-year hiatus.

Among those on the 1942 squad were William "Bill" Lowell (pictured), Rue Mattice and Stanley Petropolis, who served in World War II and were killed in action. Lowell served in the U.S. Marine Corps and died during the battle of Iwo Jima, a month-long conflict that killed more than 6,800 Americans. Petropolis was one of 19,000 American soldiers killed in the Battle of the Bulge, an attack by Germany on France, Belgium and Luxembourg late in World War II. Mattice, a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, died shortly after Japan announced it would surrender, flying transport in the Philippines when he lost power to both engines.

In 2008, a memorial was built on campus to honor Lowell and fellow teammates from the 1942 football team who served in World War II. The memorial was inspired by J. David Lowell, Bill Lowell's younger brother and a generous UA benefactor. Lowell donated $2.5 million in capital funding toward construction of the UA basketball/volleyball practice facility northeast of McKale Memorial Center. The memorial – which features a life-size bust of Bill Lowell – is located just west of the entrance to the Richard Jefferson Gymnasium.

David Lowell and his wife Edith later made additional contributions to the athletics department to fund construction of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which is a five-story football building that houses the entire Wildcat football operation and encloses the north end of Arizona Stadium.

*Final season as member of the Pac-12 Conference

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961... Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011. 2023 marks the Wildcats final season of play in the Pac-12. Arizona, along with Arizona State, Colorado, and Utah, will join the Big 12 and begin competition in their new conference beginning with the 2024-25 season. 2024 marks the first season in the Big 12 Conference.
